THE STRIKE MUST FAIL,

Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen Does Not Recognize Grievance.

MANY SWITCHMEN AT WORK

Those Who Are Members of the Brotherhood Have Already Returned---No More Trouble Expected.

By Associated Press.

Pueblo, Nov. 8. "The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen does not recognize any strike or grievance against the D. & R. G. road as the agreement between the road and the order has not been violated. The trouble occasioned by the dismissal of several members of the Switchmen's union at Pueblo Thursday morning, followed by a walkout of a number of switchmen in sympathy with the discharged men, is about over and the majority of those who struck who are members of the B. of R. T. have returned to work."

This is the way W. G. Lee, first vice and master of the B. of R. T., sized up the strike situation this afternoon. Mr. Lee left for Denver this evening. Supt. J. J. Burns took an equally hopeful view of the situation, stating that he expected no further trouble. About the D. & R. G. offices and yards this morning was posted the following notice issued by Superintendent Burns:

"All yard employes of this company who fail to report to this company by 1 p. m. today (Friday) will be considered as permanently out of the employ of the company."

A number of the switchmen who were engaged in the strike are what is termed "double headers," being members of both the Switchmen's union and the B. of R. T. Most of these men have returned to work.

Six crews of switchmen on the Santa Fe this afternoon refused to go into the Rio Grande yards after a transfer. They were willing to handle the cars if delivered to the Santa Fe in the regular manner but refused to go into the Rio Grande yard after them. The order to get the cars was in the form of a diplomatic request and the issue has not been forced by the Santa Fe officials.

TRAIN ROBBER SUSPECT IDENTIFIED AS DESPERADO

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, Nov. 8. John Rose, the man suspected of the robbery of an express car on the Great Northern railway near Wagner, Mont., July 3 last, and who was arrested in this city on detectives on Tuesday, was today identified as Harry Longbaugh, a celebrated western desperado. The identification was made by a St. Louisan who desires his name withheld from publication. He was prosecuting attorney for Cook county, Wyo., in 1887, and prosecuted Longbaugh in that year on a charge of horse stealing. Longbaugh was convicted and sentenced to six months in jail. The ex-prosecuting attorney described to Chief Desmond the distinguishing marks of the Longbaugh of 1887, and as these are all found on Desmond's person he is satisfied that he has the bandit properly identified.

Chief of Detectives Desmond said tonight that he would, if necessary, send for one of the officers of Wagner, Mont., at the department's expense to come here and identify Longbaugh. "We can prosecute him here if necessary," said the chief, "either in the federal court on a charge of forgery, or in the state courts on a charge of uttering a fraudulent instrument. In this way we are sure to be able to hold him here until we can thoroughly investigate his record."

MIDGET MICHAEL, THE WHEELING WONDER OF AMERICA.

MINE FIRE OUT.

By Associated Press.

Bessemer, Mich., Nov. 8. The fire in the Mikado mine was extinguished today after damage of $100,000 had been done. The body of Eric Johnson, one of the entombed men, was found. The body of the other entombed man, Williams, has not been found.

WEST POINT ADMISSION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Secretary Root has issued an order changing the regulations relative to admission to West Point so that the academic board may accept candidates who are graduates of high schools or students of colleges and universities without requiring them to pass the mental examination prescribed by the department.

President Roosevelt had as his guests at dinner last night Senator Hanna and Joseph G. Milburn of Buffalo.

Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador, had a half hour's talk with Secretary Hay in regard to preparation for the new Hay-Pauncefote treaty. It is expected in view of the progress that has been made that the convention may be concluded, so far as the legislative branch of the government is concerned, the latter part of next week.

Pension bureau is investigating utterances attributed to Dr. Mary Walker, who draws a pension as an ex-army nurse, calling the execution of Czolgosz a murder.

One bandit was killed and another wounded as the result of an attempt to hold up a gambling house at Naco, Ariz.

MINING

The market yesterday was dull and heavy. Elkton showed great weakness at $1.50¾, as did El Paso at 76¾. Vindicator was still in good demand at $1.26. Calera sold at 20¢, but C. C. Consolidated and Nellie V. were weaker.

W. S. Stratton stated yesterday that a good improvement had taken place in the ore at a depth of 300 feet in the Abe Lincoln property. He says, however, that there has been nothing which could be called a strike either on that property or on the American Eagle.

Several local capitalists have taken bonds and leases on groups of claims in the Wildkind and Peavine districts of Nevada. They will start good development and later organize a stock company. There are excellent prospects for big mines.

The lessees on the Colorado Boss of the Cripple Creek Consolidated property marketed 25 tons of ore from their new strike and have 18 more tons saved. They have only found one small wall of the vein as yet and the ore is richer than ever.

BURLINGTON CLIPS TIME.

By Associated Press.

St. Louis, Nov. 8. Beginning November 24 the Burlington will shorten by three hours the time of its Nebraska-Colorado express from St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph to Denver. Under the new schedule the train will leave St. Louis daily at 2:15 p. m., Kansas City at 9:15 p. m. and St. Joseph at 11:20 p. m., arriving in Denver at 3:15 p. m. the next day instead of 6:15 p. m. It will connect at Denver with afternoon trains for Colorado Springs and Pueblo. The east-bound schedule from Denver will also be materially shortened.

LEGALLY HUNG.

Madison, Fla., Nov. 8. Will Jones, a negro desperado, who recently killed three men in one day, two blacks and one white and shot several other members of the sheriff's posse, was publicly hanged here today.

CONVICTS CAPTURED

Two Killed, Two Wounded and Five Were Caught Unhurt.

WHOLE COUNTRY IS AROUSED

Every Road and River Crossing Is Guarded by Armed Men Determined to Capture Fugitives.

By Associated Press.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 8. All the police, deputy sheriffs and farmers in the country adjacent to Leavenworth were on the lookout today for the 26 federal convicts who escaped from the stockade here yesterday. As a result two convicts have been killed, two wounded and five captured unhurt. The casualties took place in a fight near Nortonville, Kan., that resulted in the death or capture of five men.

The dead:

James Hoffman, aged 20, white.

J. J. Poindexter, aged 25, white, a soldier convict.

The wounded: John Green, aged 21, white; Willard Drake, aged 19, white.

Fred Moore, aged 16, a negro, was recaptured unhurt.

The five men were discovered in the barn of Fay Welshaar, a quarter of a mile from Nortonville, Kan., about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Welshaar went into the barn and was ordered out at the point of guns. He rushed to Nortonville and gathered a wagon load of men, who with revolvers, shotguns and a few Winchesters hastened to the scene. The convicts saw the men coming and rushed from the barn. They had two shotguns and revolvers. The posse pursued them and a running duel resulted. The convicts were at a disadvantage and their shots had no effect while at every volley from the posse one of the convicts fell. After two of them fell, one of them being killed, two of the others gave themselves up, one being wounded, the other unhurt. The fifth was fully 500 yards away when a man with a Winchester drew a bead on him and fired. He was evidently hard hit, but tried to go on, and a volley was fired at him, and he fell dead. None of the citizens was hurt.

Two unarmed convicts were found hiding in a ravine in a farm near Jarbalo, Kan., and they surrendered without resistance. The sheriff of Douglass county captured two convicts at Lawrence, Kan. The oldest of the fugitives is aged 28. Quinn Forte, who was killed yesterday, was 19. The remains still at large are serving terms for robbery or assault. One is an Indian, and two, including Frank Thompson, the desperado who led the outbreak, are negroes.

Nearly all came from Oklahoma and Indian territory and they are supposed to be making for that country. They are a hard lot of men, used to firearms and horses. Some have obtained both, but others are afoot and defenseless. Warden McClaughey says he will capture every one of the men. In the districts around this city every road and river crossing which fugitives might be expected to use is guarded by armed men, the farmers having turned out to earn the $60 reward that will be paid for the return of each convict. Those of the convicts who are armed are likely to be shot at sight.

A MARYLAND COMPANY SUFFERS BY DEFALCATION

By Associated Press.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 8. It now transpires that the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland, which carried the bond of Charles D. Thompson, the self-confessed defaulting supreme finance keeper of the tent of the Knights of the Maccabees, before being released last July, is still liable for any loss which the order may have sustained by the defalcation. Representatives of the company, it is said, have informed Maccabee officials that the loss will be paid. Therefore it is now probable that Thompson will be arrested tomorrow. This was indicated tonight from a talk with officials of the order and the arrest will come as a result of the trustees of the order and representatives of the bonding company.

The heaviest loss, it is said, falls upon the Maryland Fidelity company, as Thompson's defalcations since August, when the National Surety company assumed the risk, were comparatively small. It was announced today that Thompson's shortage was $60,000 instead of $57,000. All data concerning the embezzlement are in the hands of the bond companies and orders are being awaited from headquarters. In relation to the Maryland Fidelity company's risk, it is said that when that company assumed the bond of Thompson a clause was inserted in the bond providing that if a defalcation was discovered within six months after release the company would be held liable.

It was intimated tonight that the company had notified the Maccabee officials that the loss would be paid. The most important matter for consideration before the trustees was a successor for Thompson but no successor was announced.

BOSTON OVATION 10 IRISH ENVOYS

By Associated Press.

Boston, Nov. 8. A great reception was given the Irish envoys, John E. Redmond, M. P., P. A. McHugh, M. P., and Thomas O'Donnell, M. P., as they landed at the terminal station from New York tonight. The station platform was a mass of men held in check by a cordon of officers. Within a roped enclosure were the members of the reception committee of the United Irish league. As the train came to a stop and Mr. Redmond was seen on the car steps cheering rang out loud and long. Then there was a rush and scramble which swept away the officers and nearly carried the visitors off their feet.

In a few minutes the crowd became calmer, and, escorted by the reception committee, the envoys were taken to Hotel Bellevue, where they spent a quiet evening informally receiving visitors.

GENERAL BATES MAY COMMAND DEPARTMENT

By Associated Press.

Omaha, Nov. 8. General John C. Bates, commanding the department of the Missouri, was shown the Denver dispatch stating he would probably be put in temporary command of the department of the Colorado, and replied:

"I have had no official notice of such an arrangement. I presume, however, that some time will elapse between the retirement of General Merriam and the arrival of General MacArthur from the Philippines. It is not improbable that the department of the Colorado and the Missouri will be under the same commanding officer during that time."

WAIVED HEARING.

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8. H. J. Maguire of Camden, former secretary-treasurer of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, who is charged with being short $10,000 in his accounts and for whom a warrant was issued yesterday, appeared before a Philadelphia judge and waived a hearing. He was released on $5,000 bail.

IT MAY LOSE ITS PENSION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 8. The pension bureau is investigating utterances attributed to Dr. Mary Walker, the ex-army nurse, who has worn masculine attire in recent years and who is alleged to have called the execution of Czolgosz, the assassin, a murder, and the late president himself a murderer on account of his policy in the Philippines.

A special examiner of the pension office is at Oswego, N. Y., investigating the matter and his report will be kept on file at the bureau here in readiness for submission to congress in case that body should call for it. Commissioner Evans explained today that he had no authority to revoke the woman's pension, but that congress could do so if it desired.

JAMES CALLAHAN WAS FOUND NOT GUILTY

By Associated Press.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8. The jury in the case of James Callahan, after being out 36 hours, brought in a verdict at 10 o'clock tonight finding the defendant not guilty and the prisoner was discharged. This is the last echo in the Cudahy kidnaping case and Callahan is acquitted of the kidnaping charge. It was said tonight that there was little to prevent Pat Crowe from coming to Omaha. The evidence on which Callahan has been tried would probably prevail in case of Crowe being tried on the same charges and County Attorney Shields tonight gave it as his opinion that Crowe would now return.

By Associated Press.

Bunker Hill, Kan., Nov. 8. Mother Bickerdyke, of army fame, died here this afternoon at the age of 84 years. Funeral services will be held Sunday and on Monday the body will be taken to Galesburg, Ill., for burial.

Mother Bickerdyke's work among the Union soldiers during the war is well known. A few days before her death she said: "Nobody knows how much the soldier boys suffered. God bless them."

ARRIVED FROM JAPAN.

By Associated Press.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 8. The steamer Queen Adelaide arrived this morning after a stormy passage of 20 days from Kobe, Japan. From the Japanese port she brought news of the loss of the steamer Tsurhiko Maru, a 2,000-ton vessel, which ran on the rocks off Goto island on October 11 and her crew of 50 were lost. The steamer was carrying coal from Kobe to Hong-kong.

The Peking correspondent of a Shanghai paper, writing of his illness, said that Li Hung Chang's death had been long expected and Hsu Shou Peng was generally recognized as the man fitted to take up the work of the dead statesman.

SWITCHMEN'S STRIKE IS NOT SERIOUS

By Associated Press.

Denver, Nov. 8. Manager Herbert of the Denver & Rio Grande system reports notwithstanding the strike of the switchmen the company's trains have been moving today with very little delay. He says that 85 per cent of the places made vacant by the strike have already been filled.

The strikers, on the other hand, claim that the switching has been done today by yardmasters and other officials of the road and that the business of the road has been very seriously crippled.

W. G. Lee, vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, has issued an order to the members of the brotherhood to carry out the agreement existing between the organizations and the Rio Grande company regardless of the strike order of the switchmen's union officials. This agreement, he declares, covers yard service.

Meetings were held tonight by the switchmen's union and the brotherhood.

BANDIT KILLED IN ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP

By Associated Press.

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 8. A special from Phoenix, Ariz., says:

One bandit killed and one wounded was the result of an attempt by three masked robbers to hold up the gambling house of Deel & Co. last night, at Naco, a small but tough Arizona border town. The dead bandit has been identified as Will Cravens of Dodge Springs, N. M. He was a cowpunched with a fair record and a member of a wealthy and respectable New Mexican family.

A group of gamesters and loungers pointed their hands toward the sky when the desperadoes entered the saloon at a late hour and abruptly demanded, "Hands up!" Cravens approached the roulette table and proceeded to fill a bag with the bank roll, amounting to several thousand dollars. E. P. Ellis whipped out a revolver before he was detected by the robbers and Cravens fell dead when he shot.

The other bandits were demoralized and fled in disorder. One of them was wounded by Ellis' revolver. They reached their horses, which were hitched in the brush, and rode for the mountains, closely followed by a posse which had been hastily organized. The chase was exciting, the pursuers coming so close to the robbers several times that shots were exchanged. The robbers have a fair chance of making their way into the mountains, the stronghold of bandits, but the trailers may dislodge them after a fight.

PETER MAHER QUICKLY KNOCKED OUT JEFFORDS

By Associated Press.

Baltimore, Nov. 8. Peter Maher put in a bad night to the championship aspirations of Jim Jeffords, of California, tonight, in the second round of what was to have been a 10-round contest before the Eureka Athletic club at Germania Maennerchor hall. Both men stripped as fit as a fiddle, with Jeffords having all the best of it in height and reach. The first round began with a light punch and clinch, after which both landed lightly and clinched again. Then Jeffords touched Peter with a right on the ribs and they came to a clinch. As they broke away Jeffords touched Peter on the chin and the latter growled about a foul, which the referee declined to allow. Jeffords landed lightly again and after another clinch touched Peter on the ribs and they locked arms once again. When they broke away they sparred awhile. Peter sent his right to the head without effect. The bell rang with honors easy.

In the second round Maher swung his right to the body. They mixed it and exchanged a series of right and left swings in which Jeffords got a hard right punch on the jaw and went to the floor. He lay there until the referee counted five. When he got up they mixed again, both sending in hard rights and lefts to the ribs and face. Peter got it this time with a stiff right jab in the neck, going to the floor and, on the advice of his seconds, stayed down until six was counted. When he got up they mixed it again and after a mutual exchange of half a dozen terrific rights and lefts, Maher sent his right to the stomach and immediately landed on the chin with the same hand, and Jeffords was down and out. Time, one minute and four seconds.

YOUNGER DECLINED POLICE FORCE POSITION

By Associated Press.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 8. A. A. Ames, mayor of Minneapolis, today tendered Cole Younger, the notorious bandit recently released from the Minnesota state prison on parole after serving 25 years of a life sentence, a position as captain on the local police force. Cole took the matter up with his friends in St. Paul, where he is now engaged as clerk in a grocery store. He emphatically stated that he did not wish to do anything that would not be just right, nor did he want to accept any position that would carry with it the least bit of notoriety. Upon the advice of his friends he decided to refuse the offer.

THE RETURNS FROM PENNSYLVANIA

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Complete returns from every county in the state have now been received. Many of the counties give the figures as officially computed by the courts.

The total vote for the leading candidate for state treasurer and supreme court justice are:

State treasurer: Harris, Republican, 433,488; Coray, fusion, 385,129; Harris' plurality, 48,359.

Justice of the supreme court: Potter, Republican, 431,443; Yerkes, fusion, 385,107; Potter's plurality, 46,336.

MANCHURIAN CONVENTION

Stipulates for Gradual Withdrawal of Russia Within Three Years.

UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS

Viceroys Believe That There Are Clauses Which Grand Council Is Unwilling to Disclose.

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 9.—The Han-kow correspondent of the Times supplies what he alleges is a correct translation of the authentic text of the Manchurian convention proposed by Russia.

"The convention stipulates for the gradual withdrawal of the Russian forces within three years, "provided no further rebellion occurs, and the powers do not interfere."

The number and stations of the Chinese garrisons must be settled in concert with the Russian military authorities, and Russian assent must be obtained for any railway construction in Southern Manchuria.

"No mention is made in the text sent by the grand council to the southern viceroys of mining, commercial or other exclusive privileges," says the correspondent, "and the viceroys believe the convention contains other clauses which the grand council is not willing to disclose."

DISPUTE WITH DIPLOMAT CAUSED EARL LI'S DEATH

By Associated Press.

Peking, Nov. 8. A violent dispute with Paul Lessar, Russian minister to China, over the Manchurian treaty appears to have been the immediate cause of the death of Li Hung Chang.

The diplomatic events preceding this tragic climax have enabled Japan for a moment to frustrate the designs of Russia. A fortnight ago the Japanese legation secured a reliable outline of the terms of the treaty and thereupon demanded that the Chinese plenipotentiaries especially lay before them the text, basing this demand upon the allegation that Japanese interests were involved in any change of the status of Manchuria.

The Chinese plenipotentiaries refused to comply with the demand. Thereupon the Japanese government from Tokio communicated with the southern viceroys and induced them to use their influence with the empress dowager, instructed Li Hung Chang to communicate the treaty, after certain modifications, to the ministers of the powers, and if they did not object, to sign the same.

Li Hung Chang visited M. Lessar and explained to him the instructions. The Russian minister strongly objected to revealing the text of the treaty to the ministers of the other powers and a stormy interview ensued. Li Hung Chang went home in a violent passion and had a hemorrhage, which the doctors attribute to the over-exertion of a weakened system.

While these things were happening in Peking, the southern viceroys sent to the empress dowager a memorial against the treaty. On receiving it she telegraphed Li Hung Chang countermanding the order to sign. This instruction came after Li Hung Chang had become unconscious. When M. Lessar endeavored to have Li Hung Chang's seal affixed to the treaty, Chou Fu, provincial treasurer, had arrived from Pao-ting-fu and had taken charge of the seals as temporary successor of Earl Li.

The flag of the United States legation was the only one half-masted in Peking today. The mourners and the family of Li Hung Chang will burn paper offerings tomorrow, in accordance with custom, for the use of his spirit in the other world. The street is hung with mourning emblems. All the attendants at the yamen are richly attired, and many of them gaudily dressed. Today musicians beat drums about the house.

Li Hung Chang's estate will remain intact for the use of his eldest son, who will provide for the other members of the family.

Yuan Shi Kai's successor in the governorship of the province of Shan-tung is an unknown man who has been holding an unimportant though lucrative position as grain commissioner in one of the inland towns of the province. He will be watched with the deepest solicitude, as the peace of China will largely depend upon his course.

Wang Weng Shao, who is 74 years of age, and deaf, was never rated as a statesman or a diplomatist. His appointment is probably temporary.

Telegraphic communication with Prince Ching was obtained today. He is hastening to meet the court. After consultation he will return with Wang Weng Shao, who is accompanying the court, which is now five days' journey from Kai-fong-fu.

Emperor Kwang Su, report says, is asserting himself and leading the imperial cortege on horseback. Native papers declare that he purposes to inaugurate a revival of the military spirit, assuming the honorary position of commander-in-chief and wearing a uniform. They also assert that he will compel the nobles to follow his example, to take military positions and to study military science.

A private letter from a European now in Tai-yuen-fu says that two British officers, with a party of Indian soldiers, encountered the imperial procession, were suspected of unfriendly motives, and were detained as prisoners by the emperor's bodyguard for a few days. Apparently this was an exploring party commanded by Major Manifold and Captain Hunter, who has been operating in that region for some time.

MEMORIAL ASSOCIATIONS HELD A CONFERENCE

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 8. The plans of the two associations formed for the purpose of erecting memorials to the late President McKinley, the monument at Canton and the memorial arch at Washington were the subjects of an informal conference today between Senator Hanna and Secretary Cortelyou, representing the Ohio organization, and Commissioner H. B. F. McFarland, of the Washington Memorial association. There was a general comparison of notes regarding the work undertaken by the two bodies and an exchange of ideas as to the methods adopted for raising money. An earnest desire was expressed to avoid any conflict of the two organizations, as the end sought by both associations is the same, viz: The perpetuation of the memory of the late president.

An effort will be made to prevent any possible confusion or embarrassment in the collection of subscriptions and both organizations will use their utmost efforts to accomplish the purposes for which they were set on foot. The conference showed that both bodies are well organized to prosecute the work undertaken. No definite action was taken as the gathering was informal and for purposes of consultation.

NEWS NOTES FROM DENVER

Supreme Court Declines to Interfere With West Side Court Grand Jury.

Denver Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Denver, Nov. 8. The supreme court this morning denied the writ of prohibition prohibiting the special grand jury from bringing in a report of its investigations in the West Side court jury scandal. The writ of prohibition was asked for by the attorneys for Tammen and Bonfils on the grounds that the grand jury was not legally chosen. The decision today was sweeping in its character and declared that Judge Johnson had done nothing in the selection of the jury which he had not the right to do, and that there were no grounds to base a claim that the jury was not regularly drawn. This will leave the grand jury free to bring in a report, if it should find an indictment against the parties.

An examination into the sanity of Dr. Joseph Hoenniti, who confessed to being implicated in the Betts diamond robbery will be made some time next week. If it is proven that he is not of sound mind, all hopes of convicting the other parties will be lost, as the police department relied on his confession to c[illegible]

Miss Julia Campbell, Mrs. N. R. Norris and Miss Anna Lewis were all more or less injured in an automobile accident at Overland, Colo., last evening. Mrs. Norris received the worst injuries. The accident occurred because of the machine becoming uncontrollable and running over a small embankment and upsetting.

Detectives Sanders and Carbonry arrested Henry Strange this afternoon at the First National bank as he was trying to cash a check which proved to be a forgery.

James Frommell, about 32 years old, was found dead at his room in the Great Northern hotel this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

General John Bates, commanding the department of the Missouri, will assume command of the department of the Colorado next Tuesday when General Merriam retires. General Bates will continue in command until General Merriam's successor is named, which may not be until January 1.

The trial of Frances Palmer, who is said to have robbed George F. Gordon, a prominent Colorado Springs business man, in a Welton street saloon some few nights ago, was again postponed this morning as Gordon failed to appear. He is said to be in Missouri but the police are of the opinion that he wants the case dropped because he is going under an assumed name and does not care to have his real identity made public.

The organization of the Working Girls union has been completed in Denver, and now steps are being taken to get all the girls in the city to join. After the organization becomes stronger it will lay down the law to the housewives and no doubt like all other Colorado unions will be obeyed. Among other things, the said law, will, it is said, promote eight hours a day's work, one day off each week, 1 o'clock Sunday dinner, no 6 o'clock Sunday luncheon and many other similar trivial matters too numerous to mention. The American Federation of Labor has recognized the union.

The Burlington railroad today opened its new road from Lovell to Cody in northern Wyoming. The road is 125 miles long and opens up a vast territory that will be supplied largely by Colorado produce.

A report from Salida says: Ground has been broken for the new independent smelter to be erected by the Ohio-Colorado Smelting and Refining company. The site selected is on the Arkansas river, two miles from this city. The plant will have a capacity of 1,200 tons and will embody the most modern appliances for treating low grade as well as high grade ore. Construction will be carried on rapidly and the plant will be ready to handle ores by the first of next May.

Miss Lizzie Deaine, a widow living with her son at 2105 Twenty-first street, attempted to commit suicide by swallowing some laudanum at her home this afternoon. The police surgeon saved her life.

Chief Justice Campbell returned this morning from a summer trip to southern Europe in the best of health.

Thomas Keady, who shot Police Telfer at Leadville this morning, is a well-known Denver sport. He has a reputation here as a shell worker and carried on his business near Orchard place. At one time he was arrested, charged with being implicated in the murder of Cliff Sharks, which occurred October 11, 1892. He was, however, acquitted. Last April he was arrested on the charge of buncoing a man in a shell game. He pleaded guilty and the court ordered him to leave the town.

GOLDFIELD WILL ALSO WELCOME SHORT LINE

Special to the Gazette.

Goldfield, Nov. 8. The citizens of Goldfield met tonight and took steps toward the celebration of the completion of the Colorado Springs Short Line through this city. A reception committee, consisting of Aldermen Getz and Harvey, C. B. Ault, Dr. Van Norman, Dr. Driscoll, T. S. Doty, E. L. McGarry and Herman Herz, was appointed to go on the special train with the Victor reception committee to Cameron. This city will celebrate when the train is passing through. Giant powder will be used freely. The completion of the Short Line marks a new period of prosperity in the history of Goldfield. The Short Line will be the only road with its main track running through the city. The F. & C. C. at present has a spur to Goldfield.

The Ladies Wednesday Afternoon Social club will meet with Mrs. Schofield at her home on Victor avenue next week.

William Horton, a son of S. Horton of this city, has arrived from Topeka, Kan. He will locate in this city.

Miss Jessie Small of Denver, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horsley at their home on Portland avenue.

J. D. Murphy will leave in the near future for New Mexico, where he will spend the winter with Tom Tanna, a former resident of this city.

GRAND JUNCTION

Special to the Gazette.

Grand Junction, Nov. 8. The Republicans of Mesa county are arranging for a big jollification meeting to take place at the Park opera house tomorrow night. There will be speeches and it is understood that three bands have been hired. For the first time in six years Mesa county has been placed in the Republican ranks and the leaders of the party feel delighted over the big victory of Tuesday.

In obedience to orders the nine switchmen in the railroad yards at this place went out on a strike late last evening. At 1 o'clock today they were notified that if they would return to their work well and good, if not they were discharged. They did not go back to work and the yard masters and agents have been looking after the duties of the switchmen today and trains have been sent out nearly on time.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTOR

First Train Over the Short Line Due to Arrive at 12:30—Big Celebration.

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Victor, Nov. 8. The first train over the Short Line is due to reach this city at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This will be a special train and will carry the directors of the road, invited guests and newspaper men. A special train will leave Victor at 11 a. m. carrying the reception committee over the Victor division to Cameron, where the special from Colorado Springs will be met and escorted into the city. The Portland band will accompany the reception committee. The Gold Coin band in the morning, from 11:30 o'clock until 12:30 o'clock, will parade the streets and the city will be in holiday attire. The directors of the road will be given a royal reception at the depot grounds and Mayor Franklin will make the address of welcome on behalf of the city. After the exercises, Messrs. F. M. and H. E. Woods will tender the guests a luncheon at the Gold Coin Club house. The mines of the district will salute the visitors as the train winds its way from Cameron to Victor.

At the regular session of the city council permission was granted to B. B. Jessey for the erection of a frame building at the corner of Fourth street and Victor avenue, where an ice skating rink will be constructed.

A baby boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nelson, of 706 Portland avenue.

George Hadley has left for the Mancos country where he is interested with James Doyle in mining property.

Len Biggs has returned from a six months' stay on the Pacific coast. Mr. Biggs was formerly an engineer for the F. & C. C. road.

George E. Darling of Newcastle, Pa., is in Victor looking after his mining interests.

BOILERS

Require Strong Workmen to Construct.

A big, hustling boilermaker down at Niles, O., had an experience with Grape-Nuts Food that is worth knowing. George Preston says there was a time when his appetite for breakfast failed him and it came from stomach trouble caused by his way of eating.

He would get hungry from his work about 9 or 10 o'clock but was not allowed to eat during work hours, and when dinner time came he would overeat and would be in misery the rest of the day, and not able to eat any supper. He says, "I was troubled with headaches and so dizzy from stooping over that I would stagger when straightening up.

"Grape-Nuts being called to my attention I took a package to my boarding place and had some for breakfast, and I did not get hungry until near the noon hour. I now knew what was the matter with me. I began to eat a good, healthy food and it agreed with me, so I have kept on using Grape-Nuts for breakfast with a little cream.

"I have never taken one drop of medicine only once for sore throat, but I am now as well and hearty as any man that walks and I know how to keep my strength now by the use of good food, and I think I would lose a part of it if I left off Grape-Nuts. This food has been better to me and my family than any medicine.

"I am at Niles, Ohio, and ready to show the truth of what I write. Anyone can call and see me and my family and judge for themselves whether we are healthy or not. I have used 221 packages of Grape-Nuts since I began."

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Tax Levy Fixed at 39 Mills—Musicians Union Object to Too Many Encores.

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Nov. 8.—At a special meeting of the city council tonight the tax levy for the ensuing year was fixed. The levy amounts to 39 mills and is divided as follows: Salary fund, 8 mills; fire department, 5 mills; police, 5 mills; streets, bridges and alleys, 4 mills; electric lights, 3 mills; general, 1 mill; water works, 2 mills; contingent, 2½ mills; printing, 1 mill; building, 1 mill; Slothom judgment, 2 mills; South Second street and May avenue, 1½ mills; warrants issued by the town of Cripple Creek, 5½ mills.

Articles of incorporation of the Butterfly Manufacturing Co. were filed today by local parties with the county clerk and recorder. The company is capitalized for 10,000 shares, $1 each, and the directors are Marshall P. McArthur, Lynn B. Mutteson and Dean M. Bodwell. The company will manufacture a flying toy they have named the "Butterfly." The principal office of the company is to be in this city.

Local musicians have taken action that will put a stop to the practice indulged in by dancers at balls and parties, who, by applauding secure two and three encores between the regular dances on the program. The musicians have adopted the following: "Resolved, By the Musicians Protective association of the Cripple Creek district, that after the publication of this resolution, leaders playing ball and party engagements, be allowed to accept one encore on each round dance and no more. That no encore be allowed on square dances. Any leader violating this resolution shall be deemed guilty of unfair dealing and shall be fined accordingly."

The case of the people vs. Vickers and Gaston, charged with secreting a witness, has been continued for the term in the district court. The application of Vickers for a change of venue was denied today by Judge Seeds.

The case of the people vs. Charles W. Wells was called for trial today in division 1 of the district court, with Judge Seeds presiding. Upon the charge of bribery Mr. Wells was indicted by the special grand jury.

E. C. Newcomb commenced action in the district court today to recover $4,667.16 and interest from Thomas A. Collins. The money is alleged to be due on notes. E. C. Newcomb commenced action against Annie O'Neill. Plaintiff asks that a warranty deed be made a mortgage.

A mining deed was filed today in the office of the county clerk, in which the Calhoun G. M. Co. transfers to the Ajax G. M. Co. the Victor Consolidated and Victor Consolidated No. 2 lode claims, and the Ithaca Tunnel Site and Tunnel, all located on Battle mountain, for a consideration of $1. The deed is dated October 20, 1901.

Mat Dearing and Jerry Slatterly left tonight for Central City, taking with them their speedy greyhounds, Rainbow and Lady Trump. The dogs will be entered in the coursing meet which takes place near Central City on Sunday.

Attorneys E. C. Stimson and J. Reid Crowell, who were engaged in the Crumley case, returned to their home in Colorado Springs this morning.

Out-of-town arrivals at the National hotel today were: Frank G. Peck of Colorado Springs; A. Middlecrock, G. R. Brown, L. M. Goddard, H. A. Lindsley, E. W. Redding and J. E. Phillips of Denver; H. E. Henoch, M. J. O'Rourke and wife of New York; W. A. Moses and F. S. Mitchell of Kansas City; Joseph D. Hubbard of Chicago; E. K. Mussey and wife of Elyria, O.

Ed C. Heller, a miner employed at the Ajax property on Battle mountain, had his shoulder broken tonight by a falling rock. Heller was working in the 800-foot level of the property when a rock fell from the surface and bounding from one side of the shaft to the other, finally struck Heller upon the shoulder. He was brought to this city and the injury attended.

SHOOTING AT OURAY

Special to the Gazette.

Ouray, Nov. 8. At 2 o'clock this morning a fatal shooting tracas occurred in the lower part of the First ward in a row of tenement rooms occupied largely by residents of the lower world, which resulted in the instant death of Charles Randall, an old-time resident of this city, at the hands of his assailant, Bud Parrott, a hot tamale vender.

Coroner Fish and Assistant District Attorney Wheeler held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict of killing with felonious intent. Parrott's trial will come up in the district court here next week.

NEWS NOTES FROM PUEBLO

Denver Y. M. C. A. Won Athletic Contests—Crescceus Will Race for Record.

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Pueblo, Nov. 8.—The Pueblo Y. M. C. A. athletic team was defeated by a team from the Denver Y. M. C. A. tonight by a margin of 26 points. Denver had 1,045 against Pueblo's 981. Avery Torbitt of Pueblo was first with 369 points, Carson Stewart of Denver was second with 361 points and Henry Huntington of Denver third with 350 points. Pueblo's defeat was due to an unlucky stumble on the part of Hodge in the potato race, which lost his team 25 points. In the running high dive, Hight of Denver broke the state record with 9 feet 3 inches. In the three broad jumps Hodge of Pueblo broke the state record with 30 feet 5½ inches. This beats the state record by over 7 inches.

Word was received today from George H. Ketcham, owner of the world's famous Crescens, the fastest trotting horse the world has ever known, that he will be here on November 21 to go against his own world's record of a mile on a half-mile track. The record is 2:09¾, made at Kansas City a short time ago. The appearance of the great horse will be under the auspices of the Pueblo Driving club, which will arrange a matinee of races.

The local coal men are complaining of a shortage of cars which makes the delivery of coal for retail trade rather slow. All of the mines are troubled more or less by the same difficulties. The coal men here do not anticipate a famine this winter, although there will probably be a slight shortage. No advance in retail prices is anticipated, although the dealers are paying 25 cents a ton more for their coal now than they did a year ago.

In the district court tomorrow morning arguments will be heard on a motion in the case of the Interstate Bank of Kansas City against Sheriff Beaman, to make the complaint more specific on the subject of one item claimed by the bank. The case involves possession of the Big herd of cattle originally owned by G. A. Tantis of Kansas and which were attached by Sheriff Beaman for J. J. McAdams of Texas and then again turned over to the Interstate bank under a writ of replevin.

George F. Patrick will on Sunday ship 500 head of cattle from Otero county to the Kansas City market. The cattle are all beef stuff.

Mr. Duck of Colorado Springs is in Pueblo with a view to locating here. It is thought that he will establish an artificial ice plant in this city.

The strike of the Rio Grande switchmen showed no new developments today. Out of 15 engines on the Rio Grande, it is claimed that 11 were at work today and that very few trainmen are out. Under an order issued today all men were given an opportunity to return to work at 1 o'clock and a number took advantage of it.

City Attorney M. J. Galligan returned today from Denver and made a statement for the press in reference to the bond issue for storm sewer improvements. The mass meeting was called yesterday to be held in the rooms of the Business Men's association next Monday morning to protest against the rate of interest fixed for the improvement bonds. It is claimed that 6 per cent interest is too high a rate and that the bonds can be floated in the east for less. City Attorney Galligan stated that there was an evident misunderstanding among the citizens as to the nature of the proposed bond issue. Under the Colorado law, he says, the bonds for city improvements may be issued, but are subject to call at any time from the city council. They have no definite time to run, and so do not offer an inviting inducement to investors. If the rate of interest were fixed at 4 per cent, under the circumstances he contends, there would be great difficulty in placing them. Furthermore, he states that the bonds are not to be placed by the city council, but are to be given in lieu of money to the contractor who does the work. For this reason he says the city is obliged to offer special inducement to contractors in order that they may bid low upon the work. If the rate of interest were low, it is feared the bids would run high, necessitating the issue of a greater number of bonds. In view of all the circumstances, he says, it has been deemed to the best interest of the city that the rate of interest be fixed at 6 per cent.

Final action will be taken on the storm sewer ordinance Monday night at the regular meeting of the council, and a special committee of citizens will wait upon the aldermen at that time for the purpose of discussing the various phases of the matter.

ELKTON

Special to the Gazette.

Elkton, Nov. 8.—Elkton, formerly the banner Democratic precinct of Teller county gave both parties a surprise on election day. The Republicans expected to make large gains here, but did not expect to carry the precinct. The returns show that there were 104 straight Republican ballots and 39 straight Democratic. The scratched ballots gave Mr. Crowder, the Republican candidate for sheriff, a majority of 50. This result shows the way things are moving in Teller county politics.

FREE MILLING GOLD STRUCK IN HELENA

By Associated Press.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 8. A ledge of free milling gold ore was struck today while grading the foundation for the United States federal building which is now under construction. The ledge is a very strong one of iron-stained quartz, containing free milling gold. The government when letting the contract for the government building explicitly stipulated that any finds of mineral made by the contractor should go to the government.

This is the second strike of rich ore made within the Helena city limits within the last 30 days. The ground through which the ledge runs is in the best residence district of Helena.

THE NEXT REPUBLICAN CONVENTION SHOULD MEET UNPLEDGED.

It is apparent from the sentiment of Republicans since the recent election that they are determined to take possession of and conduct their own party affairs in the next state convention.

While it is essential to the good of the party to have numerous candidates for each office, still the members of the party should not get tied up to the candidacy of any man for any office, for it is more essential for the convention to be free to do whatever is for the best interests of the party at the time the convention meets.

As was said and reiterated again and again in the late New York campaign, quite as much depends upon the supporters of a candidate as upon the character of the candidate, and no member of the party should pledge his support to any candidate until he has the fullest opportunity to investigate the character of such candidate and the influences which are supporting him.

Availability should cut a large figure in the next state convention, and, everything else being equal, the person who can poll the greatest number of votes should be selected as the candidate for each office.

There is a vast difference between the popularity of candidates with their personal friends and their popularity with the masses of the people, and the Republican party, being a minority party, it is necessary to have the particular candidates that can poll the most votes, provided always, of course, they are persons of character and standing.

Neither individuals nor newspapers should pledge themselves to the support of any candidate prior to the holding of the convention but every suitable person should be encouraged to present his name to the convention so that there will be no chance for the convention to make a mistake in accepting either a weak or unfit person.

By wise, patriotic and unselfish management the Republican party can regain power in Colorado and can retain it for years to come.

Too many disasters have come to the party in the past from premature pledges of support to permit of such folly at this time, and the Gazette hopes Republicans will refrain from such folly in this vital year of the party's existence.

THE VICTORY IN WELD COUNTY.

ONE OF THE most significant victories of the late campaign was that won in Weld county. Weld has been going fusion quite steadily since 1896, but last Tuesday the greater part of the Republican ticket was elected by old-fashioned Republican majorities.

The glorious result in that county is largely due to the efficient management of the campaign by Hon. H. E. Churchill, the county chairman, ably seconded by the Republican press of Weld county.

Mr. Churchill is one of the brainiest young men in northern Colorado, and he is entitled to any office within the gift of the party which he may desire, as he is quite capable of filling the highest.

THE NEW COUNTY ATTORNEY.

THE SELECTION of Hon. R. L. Chambers as county attorney was eminently wise and proper. Mr. Chambers is an excellent lawyer and an honest man, and every interest of the county will be carefully looked after and protected under his administration.

However, he is entitled to a much more important office at the hands of the Republican party and no doubt he will receive the same in the near future.

LI HUNG CHANG.

THE DEATH of Li Hung Chang marks the passing of the last of that coterie of great statesmen who held the destinies of the human race in their hands for so many years. In the west were Bismarck, Gladstone, Thiers. In the east was Li Hung Chang almost alone, although the Marquis Ito in Japan played a conspicuous part, and is still living.

The career of Li is a romance in itself and it is a demonstration that among the oldest people of the earth the poor and lowly may arise to the first places as well as in the land of the newest. Li began life as a poor boy and died one of the richest of men and possessed for many years more real power than any other individual in the world. The methods of Li's rise and acquisition of wealth were oriental, of course, but they were successful.

Li was a man of remarkable intelligence and his fame is due to his ability to understand the west in advance of all other oriental statesmen. He had lived a long time, he had done much, but it is perhaps unfortunate that his death came at this time. The negotiations in which he was engaged were of a delicate nature and far reaching in their consequences. Whether occasion will raise up another to take his place remains to be seen.

We cannot understand the attitude of the Chinese people to their great statesman, whether they will cherish his memory or not, but it is certain that his niche in the hall of fame is well placed throughout the occident.

USE HOME PRODUCTS.

ONE OF THE principal objects of tariff protection is to secure the home market. If Americans would only make up their minds to use home goods that are just as good as the imported the matter would be settled.

Secretary Wilson wants $10,000 this year to continue his experiments with the silk worms. The census figures show that the production of American silk has greatly increased in the past decade, but we import a great deal more than we make. Mr. Wilson wants to improve the mulberry trees on which the worms feed.

It is not so long ago that Mr. Wilson was showing his enthusiasm in the matter of sugar beets, but the public looked upon the proposition with little favor. Last year we added two hundred thousand tons of beet sugar to the markets of the world and it is a growing industry. In fact, the big sugar trust has become frightened and by cutting down its price on the sweet stuff announces to the world that this year's profits are nothing if it can only secure its big cinch.

If the public will use home-grown beet sugar and wear home-spun silk they can make Mr. Secretary Wilson very happy.

Governor Orman has honored Hon. W. C. Jones with an appointment to the board of trustees of the state school for the deaf and blind, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late A. J. Lewton. It will be a most satisfactory appointment. Mr. Jones is an excellent business man, kind-hearted and sympathetic. The management of the school will not only have the advantage of his business sagacity, but the teachers and pupils will find him helpful and friendly.

We are paying a hundred thousand dollars to ransom a missionary who is over in Bulgaria teaching the heathen; yet a religious meeting of black people was broken up in Louisiana and eleven people killed. Why not send a mission in Louisiana.

SUBSCRIPTION FUND WILL CLOSE.

THE CAMPAIGN to secure contributions to the McKinley memorial fund will be closed so far as the Gazette is concerned in a few days. We wanted a thousand dollars and we believe that the amount will be subscribed by the time that the lists are closed. This city can certainly give a thousand dollars to the fund.

Our people loved and admired Mr. McKinley and they want their city to give handsomely. A thousand dollars in small contributions such as is asked should be easily raised.

Not half the people have contributed who should do so, and a few hours' active work are needed with the subscription papers. Much of the money subscribed has yet to be collected.

We have done handsomely in this city but by a little effort the larger amount can be raised. Everybody who has not yet contributed bear it in mind and send in your name or money in the next day or two. A long pull and a strong pull all together will make it.

A FRIEND OF THE CITY.

COLORADO SPRINGS is soon to have a city hall that will be a credit to the place, and it will be centrally located. The credit for this is in a very large degree due to Mr. W. S. Stratton, and in the years to come we will all look back and feel grateful to him, not only for the reason that he has been generous to the city but because of the location and character of the building. The city council has paid for the lots at the corner of Nevada and Kiowa streets, the Methodist church site, and the plans are being made for the new building. The city hall will occupy a site 175x190 feet. Of this land 75 feet were an outright gift by Mr. Stratton to the city, and in this way we secure for $28,000 a site that is estimated worth $50,000.

Mr. Stratton did more than that. At the time the matter first came up there was no money in the funds that the city could use and he generously carried the amount for the municipality until such a time as it could pay. About the only restrictions he places upon his gift is that the city shall build a municipal building worthy of such a fine site. Altogether Mr. Stratton has acted handsomely and in line with many other things that go to show the deep interest he has in his home city.

A GOOD FOUNDATION AND--SILENCE.

(Contributed by Rev. Edward Braislin.)

AMONG the institutions present and prospective which are deemed indispensable to the perfection of our enterprising and cultivated city, there is not one of greater public value than the Young Men's Christian association. In the manufacture of young manhood, which is the peer of all our industries, nothing is to be compared to it except the combined forces of all of the churches. So it is neither a charitable nor a reformatory institution, but a preservative and an educational institution. It attracts the attention of the self-respecting and respectable young man and brings to his notice all that was most honored and reverenced in his childhood home and it holds him by its appeal to the best that is in him. It asks him to pay for what he gets—not the enormous and fictitious fee of the fashionable club which appeals only to the desires, good, bad or indifferent, but a fee that represents an actual gain, physical, intellectual and moral, far beyond its face value. Every healthful impulse, every right instinct, every manful ambition is fostered and stimulated day and evening and every day in the year, in the halls of the Young Men Christian association. Class rooms, gymnasium, reading room, lecture and prayer rooms, all are of the wholesome, ennobling character that we desire and pray for for our boys. And this is recognized throughout the civilized world, but nowhere so clearly as in America. Every city of standing and strength in our republic feels the need of such an institution and provides for it freely and gladly. In the great cities like New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Chicago, splendid temples are munificently provided for this high purpose. In our city, plans are made, but money comes tardily, and the beneficent work halts. For the small sum of $20,000, small as compared with the need and the resources of our people, the foundations of the new building are forsaken. You may see young men where you will standing and looking sadly at the new ruins, and to one who understands the situation nothing can be more pathetic. Only a few weeks ago President Roosevelt, who never put his hand to a task to see it fail, looked us in the face and then with his own hand cemented the cornerstone to its place. For one I can but feel that the honor of the whole city is involved in this enterprise and only those who care for honor will give to it a single dime. Surely, our people need only to stop a moment and look at the stones and the coming years to do the thing that will put workmen at once into the pit and turn discouragement into cheer.

A School Discovery.

A curious episode is reported from one of the lumber towns in northern Michigan. The great man in that town—the man who practically owns it and to a very considerable extent controls the temporal destinies of all its inhabitants—was equally surprised and angered the other day when, in one of the few moments which he does not devote to business he discovered that his son, a boy of 14, could not read words of two syllables and was grossly ignorant in all the other branches of an elementary education. Yet the boy had been to public school for several years and had been regularly advanced from one grade to another. The father instituted an investigation, which he conducted with the energy and intelligence which he gave to the manufacture of lumber, and of course he soon found out the facts in the case. They were that the teachers had allowed the boy to pass from one grade to another with his class without doing any studying whatever, partly, they said, because he was a headstrong little fellow, with a highly developed idea as to the rights and privileges due to the son of the town's great man. In reality they had feared to incur the boy's enmity for fear he would complain of ill-treatment and so put their positions in peril. This strange situation revealed the negligent father continued to neglect his plain duty and instead of using his influence or power by making a clean sweep of all the teachers who had demonstrated so gross a lack of conscience and courage, he secured a tutor for his offspring and ordered the two to work together eight hours a day and make up the wasted time as soon as possible. That is about as bad a remedy as could be conceived, for it takes the boy out of the public school, where alone he could be saved from becoming a snob and a petty tyrant, and it does nothing for the educational interests of the town, which are evidently in great peril from the timid toadies who have them now in charge.—(New York Times.

Revamping Prerogative.

King Edward of England, having apparently clearly perceived the opportunity that a British king at the present day may have to be something more than a figurehead, is assuming his full relation to the life of the capital and the public affairs, without waiting for his coronation. The renovation of Buckingham palace is typical of the change that has taken place. Buckingham was called the town residence of Queen Victoria. It was a town residence of the queen and her consort, but never was a real place of residence to the widowed Victoria. Seldom did she approach the capital nearer than Windsor. She never abdicated her royal function; for that matter she never exercised it either. In the stage in which it was exercised by Prince Albert or is exercised now by King Edward. During the long period of her reign following the prince consort's death, the royal prerogative dwindled to its lowest limit. This effect was curiously associated with the decline in social importance of the royal town residence.

Buckingham palace and its grounds are now being renovated in a way quite consistent with the energetic temperament which King Edward is showing. Not only are the ravages of time within the palace being repaired, but the cable tells us that "fine lawn tennis and cricket grounds are being laid out for the younger members of the royal family, while among hosts of other improvements are elevators, telephones and electric light." At the same time that the king is reviving many ancient formal usages and revamping the royal prerogative through such acts as his interposition in the Buller case, he is bringing the life of his town palace down to date and evidently intends not only to live near the people, but in a manner entirely sympathetic with the latest developments of science.

This opportunity for a restoration of some portion at least of the royal authority of other days lies in the fact that the British people undoubtedly like the sort of thing that he is giving them. There is little danger that he will transgress the limit. He is too wise to interfere in politics or to provoke any popular opposition to the monarchy. But there is, within the circle of the permanent administration and particularly in military and naval affairs, where personal influence is strong, a chance for the occasional exercise of the royal hand, and even for an influence on politics through the selection of men to be honored. No one doubts that personal influence is still strong in the British administration, and the king may well become the strongest personal influence there. Meantime there is probably less republican sentiment in England today than there was 50 years ago. The nation is evidently as well satisfied with the monarchy, as events and the English character have shaped it, as it ever was.—(Mail and Express.

How to Win on Wall Street.

Janice K. Keene was asked the other day by a lady for a "point" on a certain stock that he is reported to be manipulating in his own peculiar way of a lightning change from the bear to the bull side.

"There are times," he said, gallantly, "when one must keep his plans to himself. When I tell you to buy, you buy, and you'll make some money. And the same when I tell you to sell."

"But I want to know what you know," she persisted, adding, "and get in before the rise."

"—Or fall?"

"I think you are just mean," she continued, petulantly, with flashing eyes aimed at the doughty warrior of so many Wall street battles.

"Now, see here," retorted Mr. Keene, continuing, "I know what I am going to do—"

"Yes—yes—and you might tell me."

"Well, then, I am I—and now you want to know—"

"Yes—yes—please."

"That would be another I—now two is together make eleven, and I could never keep a secret especially when No. 2 in the secret is a woman."

"Oh, you are too mean for anything."

"But," added Mr. Keene, gallantly, "send me a check for the amount you wish to risk and I'll promise you that there will not be a loss."

"Well, I will; I'll trust you with my money," she replied, "even if you won't me with your secret."—(New York Times.

Great Railroad Expansion.

Announcement was made in yesterday's World that the Pennsylvania railroad alone will spend $15,000,000 in adding 15,000 pressed steel freight cars to its rolling stock within a year. The New York, New Haven & Hartford road has ordered 30 locomotives and 1,000 freight cars, and the Denver & Rio Grande company orders 40 locomotives and 2,000 freight cars.

The wooden freight car will soon be an obsolete feature in railroad equipment. The steel freight car costs about the same as the wooden one, but it costs less for repairs, and lasts much longer. It will carry 110,000 pounds of ore or 104,000 pounds of coal 24,000 pounds more than the best wooden car.

The steel car, invented about 10 years ago by Charles T. Schoen, was not generally in favor until 1898. In that year only 2,700 of them were built in the entire country. Two years later, in 1900, 14,464 of them were built. Now the Pennsylvania alone, which pioneered the movement, calls for 15,000 steel freight cars in one order. The aggregate of steel car construction for the current year will evidently be immensely larger than last year.

Meantime steel passenger cars are not finding the same favor. Why this is so is rather puzzling, because the steel passenger car would obviously get rid of one railroad peril if it could not be burned. (New York World.

SPLENDID ADDRESS AT Y. M. C. A. DINNER

International Secretary Smith Spoke Inspiring Words to the Members of the Local Association---A Successful Event.

Mr. Frederick B. Smith, one of the international secretaries of the Young Men's Christian association, arrived in the city yesterday evening and was the guest of honor at a reception and dinner given at the Y. M. C. A. quarters on Bijou street last night. About 60 members of the local association, including many of the leading business and professional men of this city, gathered in the hall to meet Mr. Smith, and later took seats around the tables. Members of the Ladies auxiliary served a most tempting and appetizing repast. Before dining, Dr. Gregg of the First Congregational church, asked a blessing. Good cheer followed quickly as the dinner was served and when all had close a short program of addresses and music was given. The Christian Endeavor male quartet from the First Baptist church sang a selection and Messrs. Templeton, sons of Rev. W. G. Templeton, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Kerr, rendered a very pleasing violin duet. Messrs. Templeton and Mrs. Kerr kindly furnished several selections while the guests were gathering.

The speakers of the evening were introduced by President W. F. Slocum of Colorado college. Rev. F. N. Calvin of the First Christian church, gave the first address, his theme being "The Young Men's Christian Association and Its Relation to the Church From a Pastor's Standpoint." It was a thoughtful and forceful paper.

President Slocum then spoke of "The Religious Work of the Association From a Director's Standpoint." His remarks were brief but earnest. He expressed a wish to see the new building up and open on his return from his vacation, simply because of the excellent gymnasium it will afford, not because the educational work to be carried on in it, not because of any of these features alone but because of the religious spirit which will pervade all these features. The association, he said, should be not a club simply—it should be the best club in the city. It should afford all the advantages of a fine club and should have the atmosphere permeated with the religious spirit which shall make the members better and nobler men.

The address of the evening was delivered by Mr. Smith. It was intensely earnest and was listened to with marked attention. Mr. Smith opened with a pleasing compliment to the ladies who had served lunch. He then took up his address, which was in part as follows:

"I am glad to be here for two reasons. I am glad to be here because of what you represent. It is the mission of the Y. M. C. A. to relieve the greatest need of the world. This country has recently passed through great national struggles in an effort to solve great problems but the problem being solved by the Y. M. C. A. is the greatest problem of them all. If we can save our young men in their moral integrity and Christian purity we are safe.

"I am glad to be here because of the kind of men I meet in such circles. The Y. M. C. A. gathers to itself a peculiar type of man. The successful Y. M. C. A. worker must have a rational, normal, sensible religion. It is hard work to win young men. It is a long struggle. The Y. M. C. A. wants no 100-yard dash men. It wants the man who can run a mile, then take a deep breath and go the second mile at the same clip. As a political leader said at the St. Louis convention four years ago, 'I believe God Almighty hates a quitter.' I believe it. I believe God Almighty hates a quitter in business or in anything else."

Mr. Smith then went on to touch upon some of the features of the Y. M. C. A. work. He spoke of the student work with 65,388 college men behind it, of the railroad work which has spread all over this country and over to Russia and is still spreading, of the work among the negroes in the south, of the work among the Indians, the work in the reformatories, the work among theological students, the army and navy department, the work among the foreign speaking people, and the work among the lepers in the Hawaiian islands. He spoke encouragingly of the future and said that it was his belief that the great movement of the 20th century is to be the movement of the church toward the possession of the world. In closing he made a strong plea for the religious side of the Y. M. C. A. work and commented on Dr. Slocum's reason for wishing to see the new building completed. His words were words of encouragement, words of inspiration, and they made a deep impression upon all.

At the conclusion of the address Dr. Wilcox of the First Methodist church led in a closing prayer. At the close many lingered to meet Mr. Smith personally and thank him for his address.

Secretary Day, of the local association, announced the special mass meeting for tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. Addresses will be delivered by Dr. Slocum, Dr. Boyle, Mr. H. H. Seldomridge, Mr. P. B. Stewart and others. All those who have already contributed to the building fund are especially invited to this meeting. It is a meeting for men only.

Bond Buyers Are After School Bonds

The election for school bonds next Monday has already attracted eastern bond buyers, and representatives of N. W. Harris & Co. of Chicago, and W. L. Hayes of Cincinnati, are already here to make bids on the bonds as soon as they shall be voted upon. It is expected that the bonds will bring a premium of at least 2 per cent, and it would not be unlikely if they should sell at 102½. They are 4 per cent. bonds and the credit of the city will make them ready sellers.

The bond election occurs at the High School building Monday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. The amount to be voted upon is $160,000. This amount will be used to build about 20 additional school rooms in the different parts of the city. The crowded condition of the city schools is such that it demands relief immediately. There are at least 1,200 pupils who can go to school but half a day under present conditions. Although the Helen Hunt school was opened only last Monday, giving four additional rooms, the rest of the schools are so crowded that this was an almost imperceptible relief.

Kinney Says Crowell Borrowed Money

M. Kinney brought suit in the district court against J. Reid Crowell yesterday afternoon. Kinney states that on seven different occasions Crowell borrowed money from him in sums ranging from $100 to something over $2,650.70. The seven loans aggregate a total of $2,650.70 and Kinney states that Crowell has not paid a cent of it. He sues for judgment for this amount with interest, costs of the suit, etc.

Two divorce suits were filed in the county court. Alice L. Watson seeks a divorce from David L. Watson alleging non-support and desertion. Zena Magnuson asks for legal separation from Charles Magnuson. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant has abused and cruelly treated her, and that he drove her from their home and has failed to support her.

VICTOR LINE WILL BE INSPECTED TODAY

The Short Line excursion on Sunday will offer the first opportunity the public will have to visit Victor over the new line.

The official visit of the officers of the road and friends will be made this morning over the new line from Cameron to Victor. Tomorrow an excursion will be run under the auspices of the local Barbers union. The tickets are $2.50 for the round trip and the special train leaves this city at 8 a. m. Excursionists can go over the new line to Victor or go on to Cripple Creek. Undoubtedly a good many people will take advantage of the excursion. It is very pleasant riding in the mountains right now.

DON'T LET LACK OF FUNDS DELAY IT

The foundation is in for a new and attractive Y. M. C. A. building on the corner of Bijou and Nevada avenue, but the work has ceased. What is the trouble? Want of funds! Colorado Springs is said to be the wealthiest city per capita in the United States. It is noted for its elegant homes, its wide streets, its fine hotels, its growing college, its excellent schools and flourishing churches. Above all it is noted for its salubrious climate and the magnificent scenery surrounding it, so that tourists and health seekers by the thousands visit it every year. Among them are multitudes of young men, many of them homeless and often in poor health. No city of its size in the country needs a good building with modern facilities for young men more than this, and few if any can afford it better. No money is so well expended as that which is used for the physical, moral and religious culture of young men. Prevention is better than cure. It is difficult to rescue young men who have fallen into dissipation and evil associations. A fine Y. M. C. A. building with its baths, games, reading rooms and gymnasium will keep hundreds of young men from falling into the pitfalls and snares which lead to ruin.

Did you ever go into the present quarters provided for young men? How old, barren, dingy and uninviting they are. The situation as it now is reminds me of a story told by Leitch Ritchie. He was traveling through Ireland when he met a painful spectacle of pallor, squalor and raggedness. His heart smote him as he passed and turning he said: "If you are in need why don't you beg?" "Sure it's a-beggin' I am, your honor." "But you didn't say a word." "Ov course not, your honor, but see how the skin is spakin' through the holes in me trousers and the bones a-cryin' through me skin! Look at me sunken cheeks and the famine that's starin' in me eyes! Man alive! It's-beggin' I am with a hundred tongues." So the shabby old building and the hole in the ground on the new site, mutely but eloquently plead for something better. Shall they plead in vain? Certainly not in Colorado Springs.

HOUSE CLEANING WHILE YOU WAIT

By Compressed Air---The Company Formed by Local Capital--A Proposition Over Which the Doctors Do Not Disagree.

Always abreast of the times the people of Colorado Springs are to be given the opportunity of having their houses cleaned from cellar to garret by the compressed air system. The proposition has been looked into by the medical men who recommend its hygienic qualities while the business men have examined it from a commercial sense and vote it a success. Both the professional and business men have invested. The new corporation is entirely a local concern and is known as the El Paso Compressed Air House Cleaning company. The officers were elected a few days ago as follows: Dr. J. A. Hart, president; R. C. Thayer, vice president; J. F. Sanger, secretary and treasurer; W. T. Morris, general manager. The directors are: Dr. J. A. Hart, R. C. Thayer, J. F. Sanger, Percy Hagerman and R. P. Davis.

House cleaning in Colorado Springs can in the future be conducted upon an entirely new plan. Instead of turning the house inside out, pulling down the curtains, up the carpets and living on the prairie for a few days, an average sized house can be cleaned better than it has ever been cleaned before between meals. At the appointed hour a wagon, containing an air compressor, operated by gasoline, drives up outside your door. From the wagon the flexible air pipe is conducted to the house and the work of cleaning soon commences. The air does not set the dust flying over everything and everybody indiscriminately, but is collected in a specially contrived hood. In running over a carpet, for instance, the air is forced through it and raises again with all the dirt and dust into the hood where it remains. That it does the work promptly and splendidly is attested to by the big hotels and theaters in the east where this method of cleaning is very generally used. It has been tested in Denver very thoroughly and found to be an unqualified success. At the Tabor opera house, for instance, 110 pounds of dust was collected and the house was thoroughly cleaned at a comparatively nominal cost and in very much less time than ever before.

Space cannot be given to mention all of the hygienic and economic qualities of the compressed air method of house and furniture cleaning. It may be said, however, that the plant, in full operation, was recently examined in Denver by Dr. Solly, who expressed himself as being much pleased with the results of his investigation.

MEDICAL ATTENTION TO BE GIVEN FREE

A free medical dispensary, such as is to be found in nearly every large city, was established this week by the organizers of the People's Mission church. The scope of this new departure of philanthropic assistance includes medical attendance under the direction of a competent physician. At present, Dr. H. A. Becker, for many years resident physician of St. Francis hospital, will have charge of this undertaking. The office hours will be from 10 to 12 each day at 27 West Huerfano street. At all other hours Dr. Becker may be found at 1508 Lincoln avenue.

The organization seeks to help all those who desire to receive its aid. The People's Mission believes in helping the body along with the soul and to this end has established the dispensary. The services are rendered gratuitously and cheerfully. In the work of the mission in certain parts of the city, the need of such an institution has been long felt, and the benefits that can be bestowed by it will not be lacking of appreciation.

10 SINK ON TWIN SISTERS

Lessees Expect to Cut the Main Vein at Depth of 190 Feet---Good Production by Lessees on the Findley.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Nov. 8. Wood & Connors, leasing the Twin Sisters company's property at the summit of Raven hill, have just let a contract for 100 feet of sinking. This contract will put the shaft down to a depth of 190 feet, at which point the lessees expect to cut the main Twin Sisters vein, which is productive of good ore in the workings formerly operated by Lessees J. H. White & Barth. The new electric hoist has been installed and is in good working order. The work of sinking was commenced this morning.

The Homestake company's lessees on Galena hill are getting occasional bunches of pay rock in putting down their new shaft on the main block of the property to the northwest of the Sedan. Although the rock that is being hoisted does not appear to be vein matter, the values occur in the granite which is of excellent appearance. The shaft is down to a depth of 110 feet and sinking is to be continued for some distance further.

Lessees Armstrong & Co., working on the Eureka claim of the Reward company at the summit of Galena hill, are still crosscutting to the west at the 50-foot depth to open up the ore body which was first found at surface.

The Leon Consolidated company is putting in quite a little time in trenching about the surface. At present no work is being accomplished in the main shaft, but the company is after the vein from which good float has been detached.

Fitch & Co. leasing the Robinson block of the Burns claim of the Acacia company, are concentrating their efforts in exploration at the 155-foot level. Drifts have been run east and west on the vein for a distance of 20 feet, and an ore body a foot and a half in width, averaging about 2 ounces in gold to the ton, has been opened up.

Weaver & Hitchcock, leasing on the Findley, will send out a 10-carload shipment tomorrow. The lease is producing very heavily, and bringing in good royalties to the company.

The new compressor of Sullivan capacity has been installed at the Bible shaft of the Princess Alice company adjoining the Last Dollar and the company is now putting good headways in the development work that is being prosecuted at the bottom of the shaft. A 20-ton shipment of 1-ounce ore was sent out yesterday from block 3 of the Vindicator. This is the last consignment made by Abbott & Huxley, who have transferred their lease to H. P. Russell.

King & Whiting sent out a three-carload shipment of 2-ounce screenings from a block of the Hull City Placer of the Independence Consolidated company today. Good values are showing in the bottom level and the lessees will shortly increase the rate of production.

Hatton, Fair & Newby, operating the main workings of the Theresa on Bull hill, will send out two carloads of $30 ore tomorrow.

The Monarch Mining & Development Co., operating the Brady workings of the Burns claim of the Acacia company, sent out a shipment of 100 tons yesterday. The grade of the ore runs from $30 to $200 per ton, with an average maintaining about $75 per ton. The ore is principally from the 300 and 550-foot levels.

C. C. CONSOLIDATED SHIPMENT

The Lessees Shipped 25 Tons the First of the Week- Only One Wall of the Ore Has Yet Been Discovered.

The lessees on the Colorado Boss claim of the Cripple Creek Consolidated company shipped their first lot of ore from their new find the first of the week, 25 tons having been sent out. They have 10 or 12 more tons saved, and another shipment will be made early next week. The ore is still being taken out of an open cut with wheelbarrows, and the indications are as flattering as ever. One wall of the ore body has been found, but the other is still to be discovered. The lessees have not accomplished much development in the shoot as yet, having been occupied entirely in taking out the ore which is at hand.

President Humphrey of the company returned yesterday morning from a second inspection of the claim, and brought back with him several specimens of the ore which would seem to indicate a very rich find. The quartz is literally permeated with free and wire gold, now lying in little cubes in the ore, and now drawn out to microscopical strings. Part of the rock is also liberally sprinkled with sylvanite. High assays are obtained, but these are not taken as indicating the real value which the shoot will show when shipment returns are received.

"The showing is certainly very encouraging," said Mr. Humphrey, "especially considering the fact that practically all of the large mines have started from grass roots, but we are awaiting developments before growing enthusiastic over the outlook. When the first shipment was sent out the lessees had not learned their ore very well, and it may be that some rock which, by its white iron mineralization resembles sylvanite, was included with the ore, but we expect that the returns from the subsequent shipments will pretty well indicate what the strike is worth."

STRATTON SPEAKS OF HIS PROPERTIES

The Reported Strike on the Abe Lincoln Is Merely an Improvement in the Ore--Good Development Work on Gold and Bull Hills.

In speaking of the strike which was quite generally reported yesterday as having been made on the Abe Lincoln of the Stratton Cripple Creek Mining and Development company, Mr. Stratton stated that while he did not believe the values were so high as had been made out a good improvement had taken place in the property which was being taken for a new strike.

"The improvement, as I understand it," he said, "has taken place in the development of the vein in the 300-foot level of the Abe Lincoln. Although work is in progress in the 600-foot level, I think that it is the upper workings which are referred to. We have been getting out ore right along from this level."

Mr. Stratton also spoke of a report which credited the American Eagle property with having made a good strike, saying that he had been advised of no development which could well be called a strike.

Mr. Stratton is steadily pushing work on the Gold and Bull hill properties of this company, and meeting with some encouragement. From the first he has manifested great confidence in the northern sections of the camp, and is expending his money freely in the development of the ground there. Some good results are being met with on Gold hill, while on Bull hill, also, matters look a little more favorable than they did a few weeks ago.

These developments are being watched with more interest than is generally appreciated, because Mr. Stratton's success will mean a great deal to other companies and individuals interested in these sections. Mr. Stratton deserves a great deal of credit for taking the entire responsibility of the development work, which will mean so much to the camp if it is successful.

LOCAL CAPITAL GOING TO NEVADA

The Syndicate Which Sent Mr. Miller to the Wedekind and Peavine Districts Has Taken Bonds and Leases on Two Groups.

Several local capitalists forming the syndicate which sent Mr. J. K. Miller to Nevada recently have decided to raise money for the development of two groups of claims in the Wedekind district, and work will be started immediately. Mr. Miller's report, which was presented to a meeting of those interested, spoke very flatteringly of the properties, and bonds were given on each of them in the sum of $135,000, and until the expiration of the bonds they will be worked under lease.

Those interested are Messrs. Percy Hagerman, A. Sutton, C. W. Kurtz, William Dissman, Edwin Arkell, J. K. Miller, E. S. Bach, A. L. Price and W. E. Turley. They voted to undergo a monthly assessment for the development of the properties, and that as soon as the development established the value of the claims, a stock should be formed and floated here.

One of the groups consists of the Kentucky and Sage Hen lodes in the Wedekind district, near Reno. These claims adjoin one of the largest gold producers in the district, and it is believed that they carry the extension of the vein, which lies as a blanket formation. A shaft, now 35 feet deep, is being sunk to catch the vein.

The other group consists of property in the Peavine copper district. On the properties on which the syndicate has taken a bond specimens of ore have yielded assays as high as 47 per cent. copper, 27¾ ounces silver and 1.65 ounces in gold. A tunnel is being driven in to cut at considerable depth the ore which has been opened near the surface. Mr. Miller estimates that if the tunnel opens the ore at that depth it will at once put $1,000,000 worth of ore in sight.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

Operations on the property of the Sunset-Eclipse Consolidated company will be more actively pursued now that a pump has been installed which will enable the immediate resumption of sinking in the shaft. It is the intention of the management to put it to a depth of 600 feet before any further stop is made, a depth exceeding by 200 feet that which has now been gained in the mine. It is not believed that much effort will be made to extract ore in the meantime. The company has an ample development fund in the treasury, and there is no especial reason why development work should be handicapped by an effort to produce. The work is under the superintendence of Mr. George Keener, who has had valuable experience in the development of a mine.

LARGE SMELTER BEING BUILT AT SALIDA.

The Ohio and Colorado Smelting & Refining company, commenced yesterday to build its smelter plant at Salida. When the plant is completed it will have a capacity of 1,200 tons a day reckoned at 24 hours for a day. The smelter is to cost a half a million dollars. The company is incorporated for $1,000,000, its stockholders are large Ohio capitalists with Mr. J. C. Cortz of Cleveland, president, Timothy Goodwin of Leadville, is the general manager. Many of the stockholders of the smelter company are also shareholders in the New Monarch company of Leadville, which are reported to have an output of 300 tons a day. This plant is to be entirely independent of the smelter trust. It is being built to treat the ores from the mines that belong mostly to those interested in the Lake and Chaffee counties mines. From every point it is a down grade to the location at Salida and will, therefore, make the transportation a small charge.

The advantages of Salida as a smelting point are that ores from all points and fluxes and fuels can be brought together at Salida at a minimum cost. The site for the plant is up the Arkansas river, two miles from the business center of Salida, and includes 80 acres. The work of building the spur from the main line of the Rio Grande to the site and the surveying and platting of the ground for location of buildings, etc., is well under way. The work of construction, the promoters say, will be pushed as rapidly as possible, and it is probable that the whole plant will be in full operation by May 1.

MINING ABOUT ASPEN HAS INGREASED LARGELY.

Mr. J. M. B. Parry, superintendent of the Bonnybell mine of Aspen, states that Pitkin county has increased her production and done more development work in the past six months than for years gone by. The progress in Taylor river country has been encouraging and progressive. The showing in free gold over prospect work in the Difficult district has created quite an excitement and all this work has been done by local capital of Aspen. The large silver mines have done more development work this year than for the past nine years and it has been rewarded. The price of silver has just enabled ends to meet.

A matter of great importance to the mining industry of Aspen has been the erection of a new $40,000 mill. This mill has just been completed and is of the most improved style. Space will not permit to give a description of it. It is now running full time with a large force of men employed.

The mill is known as the D. R. C. Brown mill and is especially constructed to treat the ores of the Cowenhoven tunnel and the Della S. group of mines on Smuggler.

E. S. GILES RESIGNS AS REPRESENTING OTIS.

E. S. Giles, well known in the Cripple Creek district as the representative of William A. Otis & Co., of Colorado Springs, has tendered his resignation to take effect next Monday. The news of the resignation will be a source of regret to the many friends of Mr. Giles. Mr. Giles has been looking after the development of the Sedan, National, Blue Bell, Katinka and numerous other properties controlled by the Otis company of the Springs. What Mr. Giles intends to do he has not yet stated, rumor has it that he has received several very flattering offers.

LESSEES ON RHINOCEROS DOING GOOD WORK.

The strike made by Barton and associates, leasing on the Rhinoceros, owned by the Gould company, is showing up better with every foot of development. An adit tunnel was driven 18 feet along the vein and in the breast there is now showing 15 inches of quartz that will average better than $200 a ton. The ore shows rusty gold in abundance and picked samples would run away in the hundreds per ton.

Riley and associates, who are leasing on the south 350 feet of the Rhinoceros about 200 feet southeast of May & Barton, are also saving ore. At a depth of about 10 feet they have cut a parallel vein from which the ore will average about $40 a ton.

A contract was let for the construction of a wagon road from the summit of Raven hill to the workings of the May & Barton sub-lease on the Rhinoceros, the scene of the recent big strike. As soon as this work can be completed, which will be by the first of the week, the lessees who have several tons of ore saved, will commence shipping. They are still hauling out ore from the open cut, but will commence very soon to sink a shaft on the ore body. The values are holding out remarkably well.

MILL OF CALERA COMPANY HAS ARRIVED.

The new mill of the Calera Gold Mining company has arrived on the San Miguel river in the state of Sonora. Manager Wuensch is on the ground and, the other work necessary to prepare for the plant having been done, he will proceed at once to erect the same. The new Calera mill was made in Denver under the most expert supervision and it is of up-to-date patterns all the way through. The water rights possessed by the company are of such an extent that the capacity of the plant is practically limitless. The San Miguel river carries an immense body of water the year round and can supply much more than enough through the company ditch to keep the mill running forever.

Prospecting and development work still go on and larger quantities of ore are daily being blocked out. The work of the management in reopening the ancient workings of the Rosalia claim recalls an interesting incident with reference to the Santa Rosalia a few miles north of Calera. The American prospectors of this property encountered in a dark recess a huge stone wall, and having drilled this away they found within a massive iron gate built by the old Mexican owners with the idea of protecting their treasures. The civilized owners, true to their anticipations, discovered the hidden wealth. The Rosalia claim of Calera group gives promise of revealing greater values, as the ancient owners would hardly have worked it to the extent they did unless they had made a profit.

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR MAKES IMPORTANT RULING.

Word has been received in this city by Attorney L. E. Sherman from the department of interior of an important decision recently made by the secretary of that department. The decision is about as follows:

Hereafter all applicants for patents must make entry on all mining claims within the year ensuing in which the period of publication terminated. The former rule was that entry could be made within any reasonable time, which permitted some applicants to come in with their entries several years after the publication had expired. The decision is widespread in its significance. In the event entry is not made in the calendar year the applicant's entry is void. The decision was made in the case of the Cleveland et al. vs. the Eureka No. 1 Gold Mining & Milling company in relation to mining claims.

A second decision of lesser importance but of general interest was that all questions as to the annual expenditure upon mining claims are not for the determination of the land department, but of the courts. Heretofore the land office has settled all these matters.

Rich and Poor Alike Suffer from Catarrh in this Climate.

All observant physicians have noticed the enormous increase in catarrhal diseases in recent years, and the most liberal and enlightened have cheerfully given their approval to the new internal remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as the most successful and by far the safest remedy for catarrh yet produced.

One well-known catarrh specialist, as soon as he had made a thorough test of this preparation, discarded inhalers, washes and sprays, and now depends entirely upon Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in treating catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach.

Dr. Risdell says: "In patients who had lost the sense of smell entirely and even where the hearing has begun to be affected from catarrh, I have had fine results after only a few weeks' use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. I can only explain their action on the theory that the cleansing and antiseptic properties of the tablets destroy the catarrhal germs wherever found, because I have found the tablets equally valuable in catarrh of the throat and stomach as in nasal catarrh."

Dr. Estabrook says: "Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially useful in nasal catarrh and catarrh of the throat, clearing the membranes of mucus and speedily overcoming the hawking, coughing and expectorating."

All sufferers from catarrh will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will give immediate relief and being in tablet form and pleasant to the taste, are convenient and always ready for use. They can be carried in the pocket and used at any time, as they contain no poisonous drugs, but only the cleansing and antiseptic properties of Eucalyptus bark, Guaiacol, blood root and Hydrastin.

All druggists sell the tablets at 50 cents for complete treatment.

To those who inspected the Mountain Boy during the last two weeks we say, come again; if you don't admit that we will soon have a mine and a big one, then we don't know one when we see it. You don't have to hurry—the electric hoist will carry you down and up slowly if you wish. Everybody welcome. Call or write for modest little booklet about Mountain Boy, then show it to your broker and ask him if he knows of any stock quite as good for quick profit or safe investment. Our offices are on the ground floor and always in charge of one of the firm.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Nov. 8. The market was heavy again today and developed some weakness in the afternoon. The trading was not especially good on either call, and there seemed to be a general lack of interest manifested, not only on the part of the brokers on the floor, but among the traders at large. The mines list contributed less to the sum of the trading than for some time, the preferred and common lists being quite well to the front on both calls. Consolidated sold at 8¾, a price fractionally lower than yesterday's, and Doctor was low at 8½. Elkton was very weak, declining from $1.61 at the opening as low as $1.59¾ during the day, while El Paso settled to 76¾. The weakness in Elkton reflects a general district feeling proposed stock deal, although there appears to be little ground for suspicion that everything has not been done in good faith. Penny Rawlings was low again at 16 and Gold Dollar sold at 16¾. Golden Cycle was stronger at $1, and Mollie Gibson enjoyed a further recovery to 19¾, while Pinnacle was fractionally stronger at 6½. Vindicator was still in demand, and sold again at $1.26. In the preferred list the strongest stock is still Cripple Creek, which sold at 90¢. A note about this company's property will be found on another page of this issue. Keystone was in some demand at 8¾, but Morning Star sold down to 3¾ and Nellie V. was weak at 5, having lost the 5¢ gained yesterday. There were no other notable features among the prospects stock.

EASTERN MARKETS

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 8.—There was a falling off in the volume of transactions in today's stock market, but the speculation continued notably active. There were conspicuous points of strength throughout, but the general list moved irregularly and a number of prominent stocks were at different times above and below last night's level. Realizing was very large in stocks which have been strong recently, following the custom of the market for some time past. Notable interests in this respect were the Pacifics and St. Paul. An effort was made at one time to renew the upward movement in these stocks with a resulting advance in St. Paul of 1½ over last night's level, but the advance met fresh realizing and was wiped out. Union Pacific's movement was similar. New York Central made another notable show of strength at an extreme advance of 3¾. Rumors continue current of the early adoption of a plan for a proprietary company to hold the stocks of the Vanderbilt railroads. Pennsylvania and its subsidiary stocks formed another center of strength, except Baltimore and Ohio, which was retrogressive on realizing, and the Wheeling & Lake Erie stocks moved in sympathy with this group. The southwestern stocks were generally strong to the accompaniment of reports of large earnings and pending increased distributions. An active demand continued for Louisville and Nashville and for the Atchison stocks, notably the preferred, which touched 102¾. The buying of this stock and of Louisville was based on the general argument that they were selling low compared with other stocks paying the same dividend. The settlement of the Northwestern railroad controversy continued to receive much attention, today's version pointing to the granting to Union Pacific of proportionate control of the Burlington system by concessions of direct holdings in that company. The possibility of releasing locked-up capital under this plan made it particularly attractive to the speculative imagination. The preliminary figures of cash movements for the past week indicate a small net change in the bank's reserve, although the various currents contributing to that result have been unusually complex and numerous. The export of $2,750,000 of gold has been largely offset by the sub-treasury payment on account of Australian and Klondike gold while that institution's collections of government revenue in excess of expenditures has been met by the redemption of government bonds. The sub-treasury paid today on that account for $1,171,640 in par value of government bonds, which did not figure in the estimates of the cash movement. The banks have lost a small amount on balance on the interior movement by express.

The reported settlement of the Franco-Turkish difficulty was very slightly reflected here, except as it affected the feeling of hopefulness over the relaxation of the future foreign demand for gold. The market closed irregular at considerable reactions from the best caused by heavy realizing during the last hour.

There were sharp upward movements in Central of Georgia bonds and in Kansas & Texas seconds. The bond market generally was active and irregular. Total sales, par value, $5,310,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Nov. 8. Liquidation for profits induced by early bearish conditions brought a lower tendency all around in grains today in spite of bullish reports toward the end of the session. December wheat closed a shade higher. December corn ¼c lower, and December oats ⅛@⅛c down. Provisions closed unchanged to 2½c higher.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

The London Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 8. Commercial Advertiser's London financial cablegram: The stock market was brisker and more cheerful today, the rumor that Turkey had yielded to Prince exerting a favorable impression. American shares were neglected till the close, London showing caution and taking profits for tomorrow's holiday, while New York showed apathy; but on the curb after the close of business on the floor of the exchange there was a steady flare up to the amazement of everybody. The market was furiously active. New York buying everything, particularly Atchison, Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio. There was no explanation of this burst of activity and London was much puzzled.

The coal trade was in good condition previous to the cold weather. It has lost none of its strength since and the only source of complaint is the small stocks in dealers' hands and the trouble growing out of scarcity of cars. Raw sugar is lower, in sympathy with the continued bearish feeling here and abroad, and refined is 10 points lower all around. Coffee is slightly higher on smaller crop estimates.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week aggregate 3,468,645 bushels as against 6,672,885 bushels last week and 3,445,550 in this week last year.

Wheat exports July 1 to date (19 weeks) aggregate 112,198,418 bushels as against 6,255,797 bushels last season.

Failures in the United States aggregate 191, as against 172 last week and 161 in this week a year ago.

Canadian failures number 35, as against 17 last week and last year.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S REVIEW

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 8. R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say tomorrow:

Little relief has been afforded the leading manufacturing industry in the matter of transporting facilities. In fact, the situation on the whole is less satisfactory since inability to secure coke has brought about the banking of some of the furnaces. This in turn tends to harden the market for pig iron. As this industry is considered the best business barometer, present conditions and future prospects are certainly most encouraging.

In woolens there is a free movement of women's dress goods and orders are plentiful in heavyweight lines for immediate delivery. The season has reduced manufacturers' stocks of heavy woolens and worsteds to a low point and recent unprecedented buying of raw material indicates that orders come forward freely.

Leather is held at the best prices of the season and dry hides rose further on heavy sales. Low temperature in grain-growing states brought a higher level of quotations.

Wheat is moving out freely at both coasts, shipments from the United States for the week amounting to 5,461,560 bushels against 3,210,164 bushels in the same week of 1900.

Coffee advanced despite the record-breaking supply.

Failures for the week numbered 242 in the United States against 201 last year, and 33 in Canada against 18 last year.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well-known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by all druggists.

Stand by the Standard!

Price's Cream Baking Powder is everywhere the acknowledged standard, the powder of the highest reputation, greatest strength, and absolutely pure. It renders the food more healthful and palatable, and using it exclusively you are assured against alum and other dangerous chemicals from which the low-grade powders are made.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder is sold on its merits only, never by the aid of lotteries, gifts, commissions or other schemes. The entire value of your money comes back to you in baking powder the purest, most economical made.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO.

NOTE.—Many baking powders are low priced, as they cost but three cents a pound to make. Bicalum leaves in the bread or cake glaring salts, substitute and salt, a drastic purgative, all ingredients far more poisonous.

The Official Count Will Begin Today

The official count of the ballots cast in the election last Tuesday will be started today. The count will take place in the county clerk's office.

County Clerk Reed has appointed Justice Fuller of Fountain, who is a Democrat, as one of the justices to do the counting. The other Justice will probably be Justice Wing of this city.

The law requires that the official count shall be made by two justices of the peace of opposite political faith.

County Clerk Reed expects that the official count will be finished by to-morrow evening. It will be begun this afternoon and any candidate or friends of candidates who are interested in the count are invited to be present during the progress of the work.

MIDNIGHT FIRE DESTROYED A SHED

At 12 o'clock last night alarm box No. 43 was pulled and in four minutes the firemen from the central station had a good stream of water on an old shed at the rear of No. 227 South Cascade avenue, belonging to John C. Shaw.

The shed was dry, and though very smooth, the flames rose as high as the telegraph poles nearby, and cast a red glow about the neighborhood. Many frame buildings were near and would surely have caught fire had there been any wind.

The building had been used as a stable and woodshed. Being old and small, the loss was nominal.

Several men saw fire smoldering in rubbish near the shed in the evening, but none thought of the shed catching.

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE

Mr. Franklin E. Brooks Seeks the Republican Nomination at Large.

Mr. Franklin E. Brooks of this city has announced himself as a candidate for the position of congressman-at-large and has enlisted many warm personal friends in his support.

Mr. E. B. Stewart, when seen, said: "I am glad to see that Mr. Brooks has announced himself as a candidate for congress from Colorado. He is a capable and energetic man, eminently fitted to serve the state in the capacity of congressman."

E. B. Farlow said: "I am in favor of the candidacy of Mr. Brooks for congress. He is an indefatigable worker in anything that he undertakes, and is a man of great ability. He is punctual and prompt in all business relations and has certainly done efficient work for the Republican party. I think he would make his mark in congress and would be a credit to his constituency."

W. P. Hodgright said: "I think Mr. Brooks would make an exceedingly good representative of the state in Washington but at no great cost to those for whom he has conducted business here, that I scarcely see how his clients can afford to support him."

G. A. Chambers said: "I can cheerfully support Mr. Brooks for this position. From his work in politics in El Paso county and from my observance of his work in state politics, I can say that he is one of the most astute and valuable workers in the interest of the party. [illegible] that the rank and file of the party of will be content to do so. As to myself, I feel that it would be an honor well conferred."

Prof. M. C. Hills: "I think that I have been acquainted with Mr. Brooks as long as any one in the city has, and I can say that all that he [illegible] was noted when he was in college that he was going to be a hard worker and a clear thinker, and always took high rank as a student. Professors and men alike in college considered him dependable and always to be depended upon. As a citizen who would be a good representative of this state he would be valuable for his knowledge of the state, for his legal training, his wide acquaintance with men and the party. When a man like Mr. Brooks consents to allow his name to be used in connection with a public office it means the uplifting of politics. He will have the support of his friends and the respect of his political enemies."

DEMOCRATS WONDER OVER COLORADO CITY

How did it happen?

Colorado City Democrats are still trying to solve the mystery of Tuesday's election. Every precinct went against Don Goddard. It was a sad blow to the party that expected to roll up a majority of 250 but instead found themselves facing a majority of 215 the other way. It is hard for them to understand but easy for the Republicans who worked day and night for weeks to redeem Colorado City from Democratic government.

Martin Drake, W. F. Beuchet, L. W. Newton, John Gueretzky, John S. Allam, P. J. Crosser, F. F. Schreiber, William Gessford, C. H. Bates and many others contributed largely to the success of the Republican ticket. But probably to the women workers, most of whom gave their services gratuitously in the cause of good government in the county, does the greatest credit belong. The Republicans are united and are rejoicing over the surprise they gave their Democratic friends. The Democrats are still trying to figure out how it happened.

SIX NEW COACHES FOR SHORT LINE

Six new passenger coaches have been ordered by the Short Line and the order has been marked "rush." The passenger department of the railroad has decided to get in a lot of new rolling stock before next spring and when the summer traffic begins the road will have some of the finest equipment in the west.

The six cars that have been ordered already will cost approximately $50,000. Two will be excursion cars, two observation cars, and the other two will be combination cars styled after a model conceived by Mr. Ridgway, general manager of the road. This car will be so constructed that it can be thrown open and used as an observation car when desired and can be closed up and used as an ordinary car at other times.

Considerable freight equipment and two locomotives have been ordered for some time and are expected to arrive shortly.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The ladies' Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet with Mrs. St. John, corner of Wahsatch and Vermijo, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Visitors are invited.

CHILE'S OFFER.

By Associated Press.

Laguayra, Venezuela, Nov. 7.—Senor Horbosie, the minister of Chile at Bogota, with the authorization of his government, has cabled to President Castro offering the good offices of Chile in order to arrange the differences between Venezuela and Colombia, stipulating the acceptance of Colombia.

President Castro's reply was as follows:

"I accept your proposition with pleasure, on condition that Colombia gives full power and do not forget my answer to the congress at Mexico stipulating reparation and the payment of damages for invasions and losses, bases which I consider just and reasonable."

AWAITING OFFICIAL COUNT IN OHIO

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—Complete revised unofficial returns do not change the figures of the Republican plurality or the standing of the legislature as given in these dispatches last night. It is still thought that the total vote will not exceed 900,000, but exact figures of the vote cannot be given until all of the official counts are made by all of the 88 counties. These results now include only those of the state ticket of the Republicans and Democrats without regard to the three other minor parties which received an aggregate of about 20,000 votes. It will take quite the official figures to ascertain how much Governor Nash ran behind the rest of the Republican state ticket.

The official count of the state canvassing board of the official returns of the counties will not be made until next month.

NORTHWEST RAILWAY SITUATION SETTLED

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Times will say tomorrow:

"The tangible evidence of the settlement of the northwestern situation became known yesterday when it leaked out that E. H. Harriman, James Stillman, Jacob H. Schiff, Norman B. Ream, Robert Bacon and H. McK. Twombley had been elected into the board of directors of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad at the stockholders' annual meeting held last week in Chicago. An attempt was made to withhold the names of the directors elected at this meeting until the adjourned meeting of the board to be held next Thursday.

"A report that the above named had been elected directors was circulated in Wall street early in the day, but lacked confirmation until late in the afternoon, when one of those interested in the northwestern railroad situation said that the names mentioned will prove to be correct when the composition of the full board is announced this month.

"All the various interests are represented in the list given. E. H. Harriman and Jacob H. Schiff represent the Union Pacific interests, James Stillman is generally supposed to represent the interests of the Rockefellers who are closely identified with the Harriman syndicate, Norman B. Ream represents the interests of James J. Hill and the Great Northern, Robert Bacon is a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., H. McK. Twombley is the personal representative of W. K. Vanderbilt and of the Vanderbilt interests in Chicago and Northwestern."

CONSIDINE'S TRIAL.

By Associated Press.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—The evidence of the prosecution in the trial for murder of John W. Considine will be finished tomorrow. The efforts of the state today were best, as heretofore, to establish by testimony the theory that six shots were fired in the affray which resulted in the death of ex-Chief of Police Meredith. Thirteen witnesses have so far testified positively to this effect. The bullets taken from the body of Meredith were produced in court today and put in evidence and the state announced that but few witnesses were to be examined. The testimony for the defense will probably begin Saturday morning.

PELTA'S DEPARTMENT STORE

COMMENTS ON DEATH OF CHINESE STATESMAN

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Minister Wu Ting Fang has not yet been informed by his government of the death of Li Hung Chang, and while credibly, of course, the information conveyed by Minister Conger to the state department in the interest of perfect safety he has cabled to Peking for confirmation of the news before taking any action on the subject at Washington.

"China has suffered a great loss by the death of Li Hung Chang," said Minister Wu today, "and the position he held in Chinese affairs will be a most difficult one for China to fill. He was a great man. He was also a good man and practically devoted his life to the betterment of the empire and to doing good."

Secretary Hay sent for Minister Rockhill this evening and had a long talk with him over the Chinese situation as affected by the death of Li Hung Chang. Mr. Rockhill, having just returned from Peking, is better posted, perhaps than any person connected with the state department now in Washington. The officials do not expect any considerable disturbance in Chinese administration. A new viceroy will be chosen. The names most prominently mentioned as possible successors of Li Hung Chang are Yuan Shi Kai, the present governor of Shan-tung, and Prince Ching himself, who has been associated with Li Hung Chang as one of the two Chinese plenipotentiaries. Neither of the two great southern viceroys, those of Nan-king and Han-kow, could be induced to relinquish his post, even to accept the viceroyalty of Chi-li, next to the throne. It is a source of anxiety here that some person of reactionary tendencies may be appointed to fill Li's place. That would be a more serious matter than almost any other appointment, in view of the fact that the viceroy of Chi-li necessarily will come into frequent and close contact with the legation guards and the military commanders left by the powers to connect Peking with the sea.

Minister Wu was a protege of Li Hung Chang. His friends here fear that in the death of his protector and patron he is exposed to the attacks of the many enemies in the Chinese court which his liberal policies have created.

Mr. Wu for some time was Earl Li's legal adviser in foreign affairs and superintended, while acting in that capacity, the construction of the first Chinese railway. On the receipt of official confirmation of the death of Li Hung Chang from Peking the Chinese standard floating over the legation in Washington will be half-masted and there will be other observances incident to such an event.

The ministers of the powers are personally sending messages of sympathy. The first letter received at the Chinese foreign office came this morning from Mr. Conger, the United States minister, saying that Secretary Hay had instructed him to tender the regrets of President Roosevelt and the United States government at the death of the viceroy.

The Chinese officials were unable to obtain communication with Prince Ching today. The governor of Peking, the provincial treasurer, and the generals commanding the Chinese troops have sent a joint telegram to various points, recommending Prince Ching to proceed and join the court in order to present to the court the facts of the situation in Peking before returning to the capital.

There are no signs of mourning in the city, although the populace is much excited. The ministers of the powers consider Yuan Shi Kai the strongest man in China after Li Hung Chang, and they think his presence here would have a good influence on the court, but they fear the results of removing him from the province of Shan-tung, the most turbulent province in the empire and the seat of the Boxer movement.

Yuan Shi Kai has controlled the province with an iron hand. The situation there is particularly delicate on account of the friction with the Germans, and the substitution of a man with less tact would doubtless mean uprisings and a conflict between the Chinese and Germans.

The death of Li Hung Chang is doubly regretted because he was the only influential Chinaman who could deal with foreign governments with an appreciation of the foreign point of view.

Officials attached to Earl Li's household informed the correspondent of the Associated Press today that the Russian minister, Paul Lessar, called early in the morning and strenuously endeavored to have the seal of Li Hung Chang attached to the Manchurian convention before he died. It is impossible to verify this statement from other than Chinese sources.

CHINESE RITES IN HONOR OF LI HUNG'S MEMORY

By Associated Press.

Peking, Nov. 7.—The end of Li Hung Chang was quiet. His vitality slowly ebbed. For a time he lost consciousness, but he showed great tenacity, rallied at midnight, became semi-conscious, partook of nourishment, and appeared to recognize his relatives. The foreign doctors left him early yesterday saying that nothing more could be done. His personal physician, Dr. Watt, then took charge. The controversy between the foreign and Chinese doctors had no effect on the patient, because he was already beyond hope of recovery.

The names of the procession of paper effigies, chariots and horses burned in the court yard of the yamen to carry his spirit to heaven told the crowd of officials who were gathered in the narrow street outside the yamen that the end had come. Soon afterward a procession appeared bearing a costly coffin of teakwood, beautifully lacquered. This coffin Li Hung Chang took on his trip around the world and he brought it from Canton when he came to Peking to settle the Boxer troubles. Since that time it has been kept in a temple here.

The body will be placed in the coffin tomorrow morning with the customary rites. On Sunday there will be a ceremonial corresponding to a lying in state and all the Chinese officers will pay their respects. A separate day will be designated for the ministers of the powers. Interment will be at the birthplace of the deceased statesman, a little village in the province of Anhui. The day has not yet been decided upon.

A memorial was telegraphed to the court announcing his death and a circular letter sent to the ministers of the powers. It is expected that when the court received the news an edict was issued bestowing posthumous honors upon the deceased and probably advancing him to the rank of a marquis which title descends to his eldest son.

GERMAN COMMENT ON THE TURKISH SITUATION

By Associated Press.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—While Germany regards the action of France with comparative indifference, the fact is commented upon that the Paris government did not inform the powers of the triple alliance before hand of the intended action toward Turkey.

"Assuming the correctness of the statement that the United States and Great Britain were so informed," the Vossische Zeitung says, "France appears to be dealing unequally with the others."

Government circles in Berlin say that Germany has not been addressed by France on the subject.

"It is rumored here," says a dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Cologne Gazette, "that France and Russia have arrived at an agreement for common action with a view to the execution of reforms in Armenia and the European provinces of the Ottoman where guaranteed by the sultan in the Berlin treaty.

"They propose to invite the signatory powers to meet in conference for this object. It is expected that the powers will accept the invitation, but the conference could not well be held before spring.

"In well-informed circles in St. Petersburg a fear is expressed that the present steps of France may cause matters to develop so rapidly that Russia, despite the czar's love of peace, may find herself driven into an attitude of another kind in order to safeguard her own interests. Events in Turkey and the Balkans are regarded in political circles with great anxiety."

PANAMERICAN CONGRESS.

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Nov. 7.—The arbitration committee of the Panamerican congress held a session this afternoon. Upon motion of Mr. Buchanan, of the United States, it was decided to adjourn until the 12th instant in order to allow time for an interchange of views among the delegates about the Mexican project for the arbitration treaty.

The exercises held last night in honor of the American poets were well attended. Translations of Whittier's poems were read.

The United States delegation is noncommital about the Mexican project for the arbitration treaty. They say it is merely an individual project and that others are to follow.

The chief thing they say is to do nothing in haste. The conference, it is thought, must last at least three months.

PARIS COMMENT ON LOW'S ELECTION

By Associated Press.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The Temps today says: "Seth Low's victory almost amounts to a revolution. His task is enormous. Like a new Hercules he must wash the Augean stables with clean water, restore popular self-government, place probity on the order of the day, and chase away the ghouls of corruption from the innermost recesses of the municipal administration and in doing so not only will New York be emancipated from a dishonorable yoke, but Philadelphia and other cities which are given over to bands of politicians will be freed from contagion of example."

OFFICERS OF THE RIO GRANDE SYSTEM

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 7.—The directors of the Rio Grande system of railroad have met here and elected officers. The joint directorship of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad and of the Rio Grande Western railroad elected chairman of the board, George J. Gould; president, E. T. Jeffery; vice president and general manager, Russell Harding; secretary, Stephen Little; treasurer, J. W. Gillulyl; assistant treasurer, Jesse White. J. B. Andrews was elected assistant secretary for the Denver & Rio Grande and W. E. Colton, assistant secretary for the Rio Grande Western.

The directors of the Rio Grande Southern elected the following: President, E. T. Jeffery; vice president and general manager, Russell Harding; secretary, J. B. Andrews; treasurer, J. W. Gillulyl; assistant secretary, Stephen Little; assistant treasurer, Jesse White.

SWEEPING REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN NEBRASKA

By Associated Press.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—Returns complete from 61 counties of the 90 counties in the state give Sedgwick, Rep., for supreme court justice, 69,948; Hollenbeck, Fusion, 60,328.

Nearly complete returns from 22 other counties make Sedgwick's plurality 11,120. The remaining seven counties will not materially change these figures. Of the three legislative vacancies to fill one senator and two assembly, the Republicans elect all. J. N. Paul, Rep., is elected district judge in the Eleventh district to fill a vacancy.

Based on the vote for supreme court judge, the Republican gain in Nebraska compared with two years ago, is about 25,000.

GOOD PROGRESS TOWARD RANSOM OF MISS STONE

By Associated Press.

Sofia, Nov. 7.—The messenger sent by M. Bakhmeteff, the Russian diplomatic agent, to the brigands, has returned bearing a letter from Miss Stone to a former pupil at Sofia. M. Bakhmeteff, having thus established communication, has turned the letter and details over to Mr. Dickinson, the American consul, saying the latter has the ransom and upon him rests the responsibility.

The messenger was absent nine days. The letter is dated November 1 and is written in Bulgarian by Miss Stone, but controlled by the brigands. It consists of half a page, saying Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka are well. It expresses hope for speedy release.

M. Bakhmeteff's messenger also brought a letter to Mr. Dickinson from Miss Stone. The brigands decline to trust Mr. Dickinson's man and characterize his offer as paltry.

Yesterday Mr. Dickinson dispatched a messenger with a reply to the brigands' proposition, as formulated in Miss Stone's letter. It is understood that an agreement as to the amount of ransom has been virtually established. The settlement as to the manner and place of payment and the surrender of the captives presents the most difficulty but an entente is expected soon.

The brigands are not willing to cross into Turkey to obtain the money, while the Bulgarian government would oppose releasing Miss Stone on Bulgarian soil.

PERSONA NON GRATA.

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 8.—The Daily News says:

"We learn that Miss Hobhouse and a lady companion have been arrested in South Africa and presumably deported."

Miss Hobhouse was the first to agitate the condition of the British concentration camps.

SPILLANE & KEARNS,
Wood Ave. and Washington St.

We have had all kinds of luck with our new houses on Wood avenue and Washington street. All the world has come out to see them, and, just as we thought, some of the visitors have found our ideas so good that they have taken them without our leave and put them into their own homes. That is all right in a way, but like all people who don't quite know how to originate, they cannot use the ideas correctly. Thus the houses which we have seen that are modeled after our Swiss and Chinese effects are beautifully mixed up and belong to some style "not yet discovered." Next week we will have two houses shaped up that will open the eyes of all the world that loves something beautiful. Just come out and see our new houses and look at the interior of our other houses nearly finished any time from 8 to 6 p. m.

We have a few houses of our own for rent:

A 6-roomed house on Washington st.

A 9-roomed house on Tejon st., 2000 block.

An 8-roomed house, fully modern, at Bijou st., west side, 5 minutes' walk from postoffice.

All houses new and modern. Address us, box 1061.

SATURDAY MARKET. The ladies of Grace Church guild will hold their usual market this afternoon at 2:30, in the choir room of the church. Home-made provisions a specialty.

HOME RECITAL. Little Miss Edith Stark, of Mrs. Julia S. Barber's elocution class, gave a recital before her [illegible] relatives at her home on Nevada avenue last evening.

MRS. HOUSTON'S DISTRICT. The women of Mrs. Houston's district, of the First Presbyterian church, met with Mrs. S. Curd, 115 North Wahsatch avenue, [illegible] afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

DR. SLOCUM TO SPEAK. "The Relation of the State to the Criminal," will be Dr. Slocum's topic of discussion at the section of the Ministerial association at the Alta Vista next Monday.

BANK CLEARINGS. The Colorado Springs bank clearings for the week ending November 8, as reported by Bradstreet, were $1,0[illegible], an increase of 20.2 per cent. over the corresponding week last year.

DISTRICT CONVENTION. The Ninth District W. C. T. U. convention will meet in Monument on Friday, November 15, holding morning, afternoon and evening sessions. It is hoped there will be a full delegation present.

PRAYER MEETINGS. At 2 o'clock every afternoon next week at Tejon hall, the Y. W. C. A. of the college will hold a short prayer service. Rev. Messrs. Boyle, Gregg, Brewster and Wilcox of the city churches, will aid by giving their attendance and leadership.

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION. Many young women of the city were present at the social given to the Y. W. C. A. by the Christian Endeavor society of the First Baptist church at the home of Warren Woods on Wood avenue, last evening.

ANOTHER RUMMAGE SALE. At the monthly meeting of the Frances Willard union, held on Thursday, it was decided to have a rummage sale begin on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The new store building on East Cucharas, corner of Nevada, has been secured. Donations are in order from all friends of the cause.

A MISUNDERSTANDING. There seems to have been some misunderstanding about the papers distributed by the Christian Endeavorers, from Foltz & Hardy's book store on Saturday afternoons. The papers are gathered and bunched by the young people who hope that they will find their way into homes where current literature is not found.

CARNATION CLUB DANCE. The dance of the Carnation club at the Alamo last night was everything that was expected. It was well attended, there being about 50 couples present. Good music contributed not a little to the pleasure of the evening. This is the second of the club's dances and a winter of uncommon pleasure seems to be in store for the members of the club.

OFF FOR DES MOINES. The Colorado delegates to the Supreme Council of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen will leave today in a special car for Des Moines, Iowa, where the annual session will be held next week. The delegates from Colorado Springs are R. E. Osborne, T. S. Marble, J. F. Booth, Lem Mummah, F. C. Hayman and C. H. Blood. They will leave tonight. The Yeomen have a prosperous lodge in this city.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE. There was a good attendance at the preparatory service at the First Presbyterian church last evening. The sermon which was preached by Dr. Fullerton, who is visiting with friends in this city at 819 North Nevada, was admirably suited to the occasion. The subject was "Christ the Advocate." Thirty-three persons were received into fellowship by the session and several more will be added on Sunday morning.

WARRANTY DEEDS. Following were the warranty deeds filed for record with the county clerk yesterday: V. S. Stires to Mrs. Sarah Williams, lot 6, block 5, Parrish's addition, $800; William S. Jackson to Mary Engel, part of lots 18 and 19, Henry McAllister's subdivision of block 214, in addition No. 1, $2,500; W. S. Jackson to Virginia L. Buchanan, part of lots 19 and 20, Henry McAllister's sub-division of block 214 in addition No. 1, $3,500.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Friday and Saturday's message to the tailor girl is a most interesting bit of news. It tells of a price reduction on handsome tailor Jackets and Raglans, Dressing Sacques, French Flannel Waists and Petticoats.

50 Jackets

For ladies and children. They are made of every popular fabric, lined throughout with good substantial lining satin and are cut after fashion's most exclusive styles of last spring and fall. Worth up to $11.00 but a trifle old—This week your choice for $1.50

100 Dressing Saques

Made from super-quality of eiderdown, in all colors. Well made and finished elaborately. Were $1.25 and $1.50. For this sale $1

45 Flannel Waists

They are of the styles latest favored by fashion. Constructed from French flannel with the greatest care. The $1.75 kind. Friday and Saturday $1.45

29 Raglan Cloaks

This long, full back, loose fitting garment is the most popular wrap now in demand. The lot we speak of are tailored from covert cloths, lined to the waist, full length, with the yoke effect back and front. Elegantly made and worth $16.50. Friday and Saturday $12

25 Silk Moreen Petticoats

Just as well made and with as much style as the silk skirt. No reason why they shouldn't be, but very often the case in cheaper petticoats. A better looking skirt you cannot find and a better wearing garment is not made. This lot is worth $3.50 and $4.50 each but are slightly soiled. Your choice from blue, red and lavender, this week at $2.25

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY WE OFFER OUR ENTIRE LINE OF INGRAIN CARPETS MADE, LAID AND LINED AT 60c YARD.

Upholstery Department

This department, one of the most successful in the house, is presided over by one of the most competent men known to the art. His ability has been proven by his connection with a number of the biggest concerns in the largest cities of the world. London, Berlin and New York have witnessed the clever conception wrought by his deft fingers. He received his education in the old country and spent many years in travel, thus learning the various styles of the leading fashionable centers of the Old and New World.

To back up his skill we carry in stock the choicest upholstery fabrics, both imported and domestic. The new Art Nouveau has full representation. See them.

Hosiery and Underwear

True progress was never more evident than in the above departments. True progress along the line of making true economy possible for our patrons. Such economy does not consist simply of getting things at lowest possible prices. It is getting thoroughly satisfactory goods at prices as low as the market affords. To tell of our guarantee is an oft repeated story, but "a good story oft bears repeating," so we beg to impress upon your memory that every pair of hose or undergarment sold in this store is backed up by us.

GIDDINGS BROS.

Soft Sofas and Sleepy Beds

Did you ever realize how much better you sleep on one bed than another? Well, it's in the mattress.

We sell the kind that make you comfortable, because they are hand made and are naturally best. No extra charge for our reputation either.

Our new Sanitary Mattress at $6.50 has more comfort and durability to the square inch than any mattress made.
We guarantee all our hair mattresses.
